Loses 10,000 Men, According to Latest Reports, and Is Held By Carranza to Be No Longer a Factor in Mexico.

GEN. OBREGON SAID TO HAVE LOST
RIGHT ARM IN BATTLE JUST ENDED

Gonzales Now Headed Toward Mexico City and Expects to Be There Within Week—Villa's Desire to Meet Carranza and Discuss Wilson's Letter, Still Attracting Attention.

By Associated Press.

Washington, June 8.—Carranza officials here today received a telegram from General Obregon in Leon approximating Villa's dead, wounded and captured at 10,000. Villa and Angeles, he says, have only small body guards with them.

From Vera Cruz Carranza dispatches say General Gonzales is continuing his march to Mexico City. The Carranza consul at New York received a message from Obregon declaring the battle of Leon means the end of the Villa-Angeles revolt. This message says Gonzales will be in Mexico City before the end of the week.

El Paso, Texas, June 8.—The possible effect of the occupation of Leon state of Guanajuato, yesterday by General Obregon on the attitude of Venustiano Carranza and Francisco Villa toward President Wilson's warning was regarded here as the most significant feature of the recent changes along the battle front.

The fighting of the last two months has resulted in the retirement of Villa forces from Celaya, state of Guanajuato, northward to Lagos, state of Galisco, approximately 120 miles.

Carranza advices via Vera Cruz declare that Villa troops were beaten decisively at Leon yesterday; that Obregon continues the pursuit and has captured much Villa artillery and supplies.

No estimate of casualties is given. Carranza Agency statements claim Villa has been eliminated as a factor in Mexican affairs and say Carranza forces soon will move on Mexico City.

Washington, June 8.—Advices to the State Department by wireless from Vera Cruz report the capture of Tuxpan by Villa forces Sunday. One British citizen was killed and four wounded, including a woman and her infant child, while trying to seek cover during the fighting.

Consul Silliman at Vera Cruz reported today that General Obregon's victory over the Villa forces at Leon appeared to be confirmed. He said it was reported Obregon had lost his right arm during the fighting.

Washington, June 8.—United States government officials today viewed with keen interest efforts of General Villa to meet General Carranza in conference to consider President Wilson's recent communication demanding a settlement of Mexican affairs.

This move on the part of the northern leader, which his secretary announced last night Villa was ready to make, was considered by officials as the most important Mexican development since the president's statement.

ing as expeditious as was consistent with carefulness.

The president today gave no inkling of its contents, believing that forecasts might set up a misconception abroad of the American position.

The arrival of the note from Germany, offering to pay for the attack on the Gulf and asking for further information concerning the dropping of bombs on the Cushing, was referred to by the president as "not unsatisfactory."

Those two cases, however, did not affect the main principle for which the United States is contending—that Americans on unarmed merchant ships of every nationality shall be transferred to a place of safety before any prize is destroyed.

The president said he had learned only through the newspapers of the mission of Van Ghell Geldemeester, who arrived here in the interest of neutral mediation in the European war. The president added, however, he believed individual officials might have information concerning Geldemeester's trip here.

BILLION BUSHELS OF WHEAT

By Associated Press.

Washington, June 8.—The greatest wheat crop the country ever has known is in prospect for the coming harvest.

In its forecast today, based on the condition of winter and spring wheat on June 1, the Federal Crop Reporting Board placed the prospective wheat crop at 950,000,000 bushels, which would exceed last year's record crop by 59,000,000 bushels.

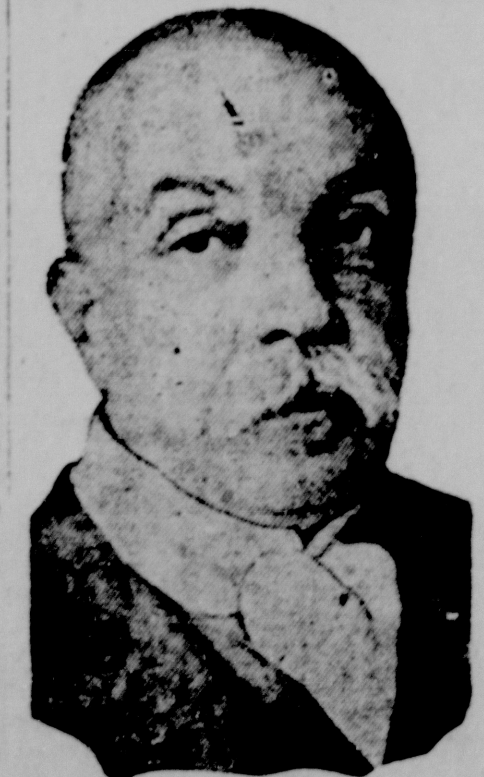

With continued growing conditions the crop might reach a billion bushels.

Of the great wheat crop the bulk is winter wheat, planted last fall on the greatest acreage ever sown. The yield of that class of wheat is placed at 676,000,000 bushels, which would be 9,000,000 bushels under last year's record crop.

Of spring wheat 274,000,000 are forecast. That amount would be 50,000,000 bushels under the record crop of 1912, but greater, however, than last year and the year before.

Washington, June 8.—After two hours discussion of the note to Germany at the cabinet meeting today Secretary Tumulty, at the direction of President Wilson, made this announcement:

"The note was gone over and discussed and put in final form. It probably will go forward to Berlin tomorrow."

The cabinet members uniformly refused to discuss it. It was learned definitely that only a few slight changes in phraseology were made at the cabinet meeting.

The note was taken up in the form in which it came after Secretary Bryan had spent several hours on it after his conference with the president, yesterday.

After the meeting Secretary Bryan went to luncheon with other members. Cabinet members said that while possibly a few words might be changed the note would go forward to Berlin in practically the form agreed upon at today's meeting.

Washington, June 8.—President Wilson announced today that the note to Germany was about finished and would go forward shortly. He did not specify the day, but said the document would be gone over in final revision today by the cabinet.

The president explained that there had been no delay of any kind in the preparation of the note, that he had brought only a rough draft of it to the cabinet meeting Friday, and that there had been all sorts of suggestions since the cabinet last met.

The general character of the document, however, he said, had not been modified, and he believed it had the approval of the entire cabinet.

MIDSHIPMAN IS BLAMED

Annapolis, June 8.—Rear Admiral Fullam, superintendent of the naval academy, testifying today before the court of inquiry investigating charges of irregularities in examinations at the academy, declared that Midshipman James E. Moss, of Annapolis, was the man primarily responsible for the whole scandal of irregularities.

The midshipman, the admiral asserted, was being supported in his plea for clemency by two United States senators, a representative in Congress and two lawyers.

"If such forces," said the superintendent, "were permitted to control in such a case, it would not be possible to maintain a standard of discipline in the naval academy."

AMENDMENT TO SCHOOL CODE INTERPRETED

By Associated Press.

Columbus, June 8.—Attorney General Turner gave an opinion to the superintendent of instruction today interpreting the Winans amendment to the school code to mean that contracts entered into between district supervisors and local school authorities after May 27, when the bill was filed with the secretary of state, may be declared invalid though the measure actually does not go into effect for 90 days. Contracts made before that date are not impaired, however.

SHEEP CLAIMS ALLOWED TODAY

The County Commissioners, at a special meeting Tuesday morning, allowed sheep claims to the extent of $596.35, and witness fees aggregating $31.45.

The total amount of the claims was $651.65, but after investigation the amounts were reduced.

BRITISH SUFFER SERIOUS LOSSES

Claim Made That Allies on Gallipoli Peninsula Lose Large Stores of Munitions and Have 40,000 Wounded at Alexandria—Italians Occupy More Strategic Positions and Advance Steadily—Russ Continue to Fall Back—Extension of German Empire Beyond Old Boundaries Is Sought, Says Bavarian King.

By Associated Press.

London, June 8.—Official advices from Petrograd give few definite statements concerning the situation in Galicia. It is admitted, however, that the Austro-German forces succeeded in crossing the Dniester river near Zorawno and apparently the Russians are still falling back along most of this front.

German victory, almost as striking as that in Galicia, is said in Berlin, to have been won in the Baltic provinces several weeks ago. The Russian resistance is said to have broken down.

A Petrograd dispatch asserts the Russians were victorious in the bitterest battle of this campaign, fought for control of the Dubysa river. It is said the fighting was so fierce and deadly that the river was choked with bodies of the dead.

Berlin, June 8.—Constantinople reports to the Overseas News Agency say that the British suffered a severe defeat at Seddul Bahr, losing large stores of ammunition and guns and are now in a dangerous position.

The British, according to the report, are without the support of the heavy guns of their ships. It declares travelers report that at Alexandria, Egypt, there are no fewer than 40,000 wounded British soldiers.

A Cologne newspaper declares that the chances of Bulgaria and Roumania entering the war with Great Britain, France and Russia are diminishing. The dispatch says Roumania has rejected the first offer of the triple entente.

London, June 8.—Four more vessels, three of them neutrals, have been sunk by German submarines in the waters near the British Isles. The neutral ships were all Norwegian and no loss of life on them is reported.

In the case of the fourth vessel, the Belgian steamer Menatier, only six of the 23 persons on board were saved.

A report from the front declares the Italians are making methodical progress all along the frontier, taking possession of important positions.

Apparently the main body of invading forces has not yet crossed the Isonzo river, along the line north of the Gulf of Trieste, but General Cadorna, Italian chief-of-staff, stated strong detachments had entrenched themselves on the further side, meeting little opposition.

Forces which crossed the river near Tolmino now menace that point, which is of great strategic importance.

Reports from Vienna say the Austrians have been successful in several minor engagements with the Italians. Although there has been sharp fighting at various points the Austrians are still postponing the decisive battle which is expected soon.

Berlin, June 8.—General von Linsingen in his advance from Przemyśl in the direction of Lemberg has reached a point 45 miles northeast of Przemyśl, according to an official report given out today.

London, June 8.—The principal point of interest on the western front now is Hebuterne, 13 miles southwest of Arras, where the French have instituted a vigorous new attack.

A Paris official statement says four German counter attacks were defeated and that the French increased their gains to the extent of two lines of German trenches over a front of 500 yards.

Udine, Italy, June 8.—Italian forces are today engaged with the forces of Austria on the eastern banks of the Isonzo river at a point north of Tolmino. They are fighting also around Gradisca, evidently with the intention of encircling this position.

It is apparently the intention of Italian leaders to deprive the Austrians of their first line of defense. A number of positions have been occupied with the idea of gaining position of the Gulf of Panzano, whence it will be easier to attack Monfalcone.

Amsterdam, June 8.—Extension of the German Empire beyond the old frontiers to secure it against future attacks was predicted by King Ludwig of Bavaria in an address yesterday, according to a telegram from Munich.

FUNDS FOR MAIN MARKET ROADS

In a conference with the State Highway Commissioner, Monday, the County Commissioners learned that no large amount of funds for the State Main Market roads can be obtained for this county until next year, while the amount obtainable under the state-aid plan for inter-county highways is $16,000 for this year.

The main market road attracting most attention in this county is the Wilmington pike and the Columbus pike, known as Main Market Roads Nos. 16 and 59.

Next year several thousands of dollars will be available, and one to three miles of the main market road will be constructed.

Some $90,000 of the funds this year went on the National Highway, where the federal government expended a similar amount.

TRUSTEES WILL MEET WITH COMMISSIONERS

A call will be issued in the near future for a meeting of all township trustees in the county, to assemble at the court house and discuss with the county commissioners the bridge situation in the various townships.

The meeting will be held sometime during the summer, probably in August.

KNIGHTS TO HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICES

The annual memorial services of Confidence Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will be held Sunday, June 13th. A committee will decorate the graves of deceased members Sunday morning, and at 7:00 o'clock Sunday evening the members will meet at the hall and march in a body to Grace M. E. church, where Rev. Ross will deliver the memorial address.

MRS. E. W. NELSON DIES IN COLUMBUS

Mrs. E. W. Nelson, aged 45 years, of East Paint street, this city, who has been in Columbus with her husband for some weeks, died at a Columbus hospital, Monday evening, from the effects of an operation for an aggravated case of appendicitis.

Mr. Nelson, who formerly conducted a skating rink in this city, has been operating a rink at Olentangy Park, Columbus, and Mrs. Nelson has been residing with him in that city, closing up their home on Paint street for the summer.

The remains were shipped to this city over the B. & O. Tuesday afternoon, and taken to the deceased's late home. Funeral services will probably be held Wednesday. Interment in the Bloomingburg cemetery.

SERIOUSLY INJURED BY FRIGHTENED COW

Mrs. Morgan Glass, residing between Jeffersonville and Jamestown, near the Greene-Fayette line, is in a serious condition, the result of injuries sustained Sunday evening while out milking.

The cow she was milking wheeled suddenly and knocked Mrs. Glass to the ground, trampling her until her injuries were such that grave fears for her recovery are held. Mrs. Glass was able to crawl to the barn door where her daughter found her and summoned assistance.

The worst injuries were about the head and spine.

WORKHOUSE REPORT SHOWS GAIN FOR MAY

Supt. Crow's report on the Xenia Workhouse, for the month of May, shows a gain of $194.36. The number of prisoners May 1 was 87, while 19 were received and 38 discharged during the month, 68 remaining at the beginning of June.

Prisoners released included Oscar Willett and William Wolf, of this county.

WOMAN IS ARRESTED FOR APPLYING MATCH TO STORE

Mrs. Chas. Acton Taken Into Custody By Local Police Upon Warrants Issued in Ross Co., Charging Her With Arson, Larceny and Burglary—Husband Sentenced to Term in Ohio Pen for Similar Work

Acting upon advice from Chillicothe the local police arrested Charles Acton's wife Monday evening, for burning the Charles Higby store at Higby's, Ross county, for burglarizing the place and for larceny. The woman's arrest was the result of a recent confession made by Acton in which he implicated his wife in a number of crimes, including the theft of the Vance horse near this city last year.

Patrolman Baughn made the arrest, locating the woman at the County Children's Home, where she was employed. She was brought to this city and placed in the county jail until Tuesday, when an officer from Chillicothe arrived and took her to Chillicothe to face the charges against her.

The woman bears a most unsavory reputation and time after time has been in trouble with Acton, and has been chased out of Ross, Jackson, Highland and Fayette counties, where she and her husband are alleged to have operated in various lines of crime.

The offense of which the woman is charged in Ross county took place last summer when the Higby store was burglarized and burned to the ground.

A few days ago Acton made a confession in which he stated that his wife was a party to the crime. Little attention was given to his confession because of so many previous "confessions" which had proven false. However, the Sheriff of Ross made an investigation of certain claims advanced by Acton and learned that they were true, and that undoubtedly the Higby fire had been kindled by the Actons, whereupon he caused a warrant for the woman's arrest to be issued and wired to Chief Moore to place the woman under arrest and hold her until he could come to this city and get her.

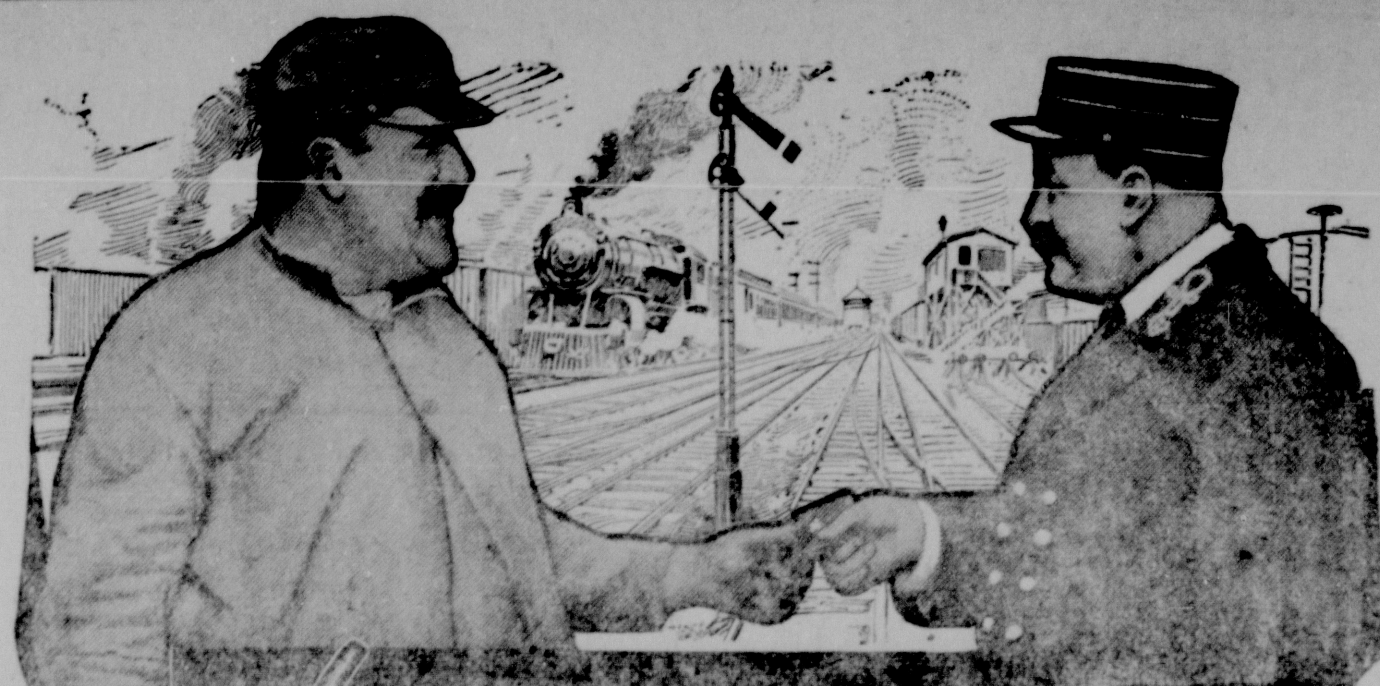

Acton also mentioned the name of one Lou Snyder as being implicated in the Higby burglary and fire. Following a plea of guilty to the charge of arson Acton Monday afternoon sentenced to an indeterminate term in the Ohio penitentiary, it is learned from Chillicothe. Indications are that Acton will be kept in prison for several years, and that his wife also will find a safe haven in state prison for a number of years to come.

"It's Always STAR
When Good Fellows Get Together"

Men Who Chew Are Men Who DO

IN this country are thousands of miles of railroad tracks, hundreds of railroad bridges, and thousands of trains rushing from place to place.

The men who chew tobacco built these bridges, laid these tracks and drive these fast-moving trains. In every part of the railroad service we find these thoughtful, quick-acting, manly men, making thinking more accurate, labor lighter and pastime more pleasant by chewing STAR tobacco.

STAR is their favorite for worktime and playtime. They find complete tobacco comfort and full tobacco enjoyment in the thick, mellow STAR plug.

You'll like STAR, too—you'll like the honest weight—the superior chewing quality. You'll find the last bite as good as the first and each new plug a new delight.

So many "chewers and doers" chew STAR that one hundred and twenty-five million ten cent pieces are sold each year—enough to follow the railroad from New York to New Orleans, then to San Francisco and enough left over to stretch to Tacoma, Washington.

If there should be patches of eczema on the skin—or any excoriations—plain water increases the irritation, and a bran bath heals. Berlin, June 8.—Constantinople reports to the Overseas News Agency say that the British suffered a severe defeat at Seddul Bahr, losing large stores of ammunition and guns and are now in a dangerous position.

The British, according to the report, are without the support of the heavy guns of their ships. It declares travelers report that at Alexandria, Egypt, there are no fewer than 40,000 wounded British soldiers.

A Cologne newspaper declares that the chances of Bulgaria and Roumania entering the war with Great Britain, France and Russia are diminishing. The dispatch says Roumania has rejected the first offer of the triple entente.

London, June 8.—Four more vessels, three of them neutrals, have been sunk by German submarines in the waters near the British Isles. The neutral ships were all Norwegian and no loss of life on them is reported.

In the case of the fourth vessel, the Belgian steamer Menatier, only six of the 23 persons on board were saved.

A report from the front declares the Italians are making methodical progress all along the frontier, taking possession of important positions.

Apparently the main body of invading forces has not yet crossed the Isonzo river, along the line north of the Gulf of Trieste, but General Cadorna, Italian chief-of-staff, stated strong detachments had entrenched themselves on the further side, meeting little opposition.

Forces which crossed the river near Tolmino now menace that point, which is of great strategic importance.

Reports from Vienna say the Austrians have been successful in several minor engagements with the Italians. Although there has been sharp fighting at various points the Austrians are still postponing the decisive battle which is expected soon.

Berlin, June 8.—General von Linsingen in his advance from Przemyśl in the direction of Lemberg has reached a point 45 miles northeast of Przemyśl, according to an official report given out today.

London, June 8.—The principal point of interest on the western front now is Hebuterne, 13 miles southwest of Arras, where the French have instituted a vigorous new attack.

A Paris official statement says four German counter attacks were defeated and that the French increased their gains to the extent of two lines of German trenches over a front of 500 yards.

Udine, Italy, June 8. — Italian forces are today engaged with the forces of Austria on the eastern banks of the Isonzo river at a point north of Tolmein. They are fighting also around Gradisca, evidently with the intention of encircling this position.

It is apparently the intention of Italian leaders to deprive the Austrians of their first line of defense. A number of positions have been occupied with the idea of gaining position of the Gulf of Panzano, whence it will be easier to attack Monfalcone.

Amsterdam, June 8.—Extension of the German Empire beyond the old frontiers to secure it against future attacks was predicted by King Ludwig of Bavaria in an address yesterday, according to a telegram from Munich.

FUNDS FOR MAIN MARKET ROADS

In a conference with the State Highway Commissioner, Monday, the County Commissioners learned that no large amount of funds for the State Main Market roads can be obtained for this county until next year, while the amount obtainable under the state-aid plan for inter-county highways is $16,000 for this year.

The main market road attracting most attention in this county is the Wilmington pike and the Columbus pike, known as Main Market Roads Nos. 10 and 50.

Next year several thousands of dollars will be available, and one to three miles of the main market road will be constructed.

Some $90,000 of the funds this year went on the National Highway, where the federal government expended a similar amount.

TRUSTEES WILL MEET WITH COMMISSIONERS

A call will be issued in the near future for a meeting of all township trustees in the county, to assemble at the court house and discuss with the county commissioners the bridge situation in the various townships.

The meeting will be held sometime during the summer, probably in August.

KNIGHTS TO HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICES

The annual memorial services of Confidence Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will be held Sunday, June 13th. A committee will decorate the graves of deceased members Sunday morning, and at 7:00 o'clock Sunday evening the members will meet at the hall and march in a body to Grace M. E. church, where Rev. Ross will deliver the memorial address.

Cincinnati Suffers Loss.

By the appointment of Stewart J. Bolin of Columbus as United States District Attorney to succeed Sherman T. McPherson, who resigned at the request of the government following objections to the allowance of enormous fees to McPherson and his assistant, Harley Burns, in the Columbus "Oleo" cases, Cincinnati sustains another severe jolt to her prestige.

The appointment of Mr. Bolin means that for the first time in decades the office of the United States District Attorney will be located in Columbus.

This is only one of the many changes that have occurred within the last half dozen years which proves how far behind the procession of progressive cities Cincinnati is falling and how generally that fact is recognized throughout Ohio and the nation.

Cincinnati people, as usual, raise a loud and vehement complaint. With each one of these distinct losses the city suffers the residents of the Queen City feel deeply their humiliation and appreciate the extent of these multiplied events but they seem powerless to pry off the political and stand pat barnacles that are dragging the city backward.

The Coming of Summer

The past few days have placed a quietus upon speculation as to whether this year would be a duplication of the famous 1816—a year without a summer—and has proved a foretaste of ideal summer weather, just the kind that Fayette county has been needing for its big corn crop.

Everybody who remembered a year with little summer weather has been busily brushing up recollections and people were fearing that 1915 was to add another unseasonable record.

The year of 1875 is remembered by prominent residents of our town as being notably rainy, with practically no summer, and it is claimed that the year 1816, only a memory now, was absolutely without a summer.

Following a mild winter and early spring in 1816 May was a month of winter temperature, with snow and ice which killed not only the fruit, but even the leaves of the trees.

June, of the same year, refused to warm up and instead of June roses there was ice as far south as Tennessee, while snow lay ten inches deep in Vermont.

Tillers of the soil planted and replanted corn; but over all this United States none attained maturity, and agricultural conditions were distressing.

Although July and August saw no ice there was no hot weather and winter set in before the harvest moon went down and proved the most severe on record.

Nothing to equal climatic conditions of 1816 has since been recorded and people are very willing to let it hold this record and are glad to have the warmth and sunshine which will ripen to maturity crops, fruits and vegetation.

Republics of the Two Americas Must Assume the Task of Reincarnating Civilization

By Dr. ROMULO S. NAON, Argentine Ambassador

IN the face of this enormous catastrophe the bearing of America cannot be but expectant and reconstructive if, as I believe, there is still reason to trust that the idea of human solidarity is the final end of social evolution. Nevertheless neglect in the consideration of the factors which have produced the crisis for the purpose of avoiding them in the organization of our international policy in America would be, if not criminal on our part, AT LEAST A DEMONSTRATION THAT OUR COUNTRIES ARE AS YET UNPREPARED TO COMPREHEND THE MISSION THAT IS DESTINED FOR US IN THE CONCERT OF THE NATIONS.

Hence at the present hour it is for us—the countries far removed from the scene and aloof from the interests in the midst of which the European dissensions have been growing until this terrible climax—to take up the arduous but glorious task of reincarnating modern civilization. But to do this it becomes essential to readjust the system of our political ties; to correct, until they are made to vanish, the causes of possible disagreements.

FINALLY, WE MUST CEMENT AMERICAN SOLIDARITY, FOUNDING IT UPON THE MAINTENANCE OF THE PRINCIPLES OF RIGHT, OF JUSTICE AND OF RECIPROCAL TOLERANCE.

THE PERFECT CAR AND ITS ACCESSORIES.

An Imbecile Four rolled up to the door.
All covered with extra devices galore,
With trunk, anti-rattlers, self-start-er and clock.
With patent absorbers to take out the shock.
With microscope, primer, dust covers and chains.
With a twenty man top which gets stuck when it rains.
With fire extinguisher, rims which demount.
With covers and holders and racks without count.
With battery testers, a few extra tubes.
A slick cigar lighter to capture the tubes.
With dimmers and wrenches, gas savers and pumps,
And re-enforced springs to take care of the bumps
Said I to the agent: "The car looks quite nice.
Please quote me (with discounts) your very best price."
He figured it out on the back of his cuff.
One third for the car and two thirds for the stuff.
Oh, it isn't the power, the strength or the speed,
The "get there" or "come back" which this car really needs,
But it's trappings and gewgaws and whatnots galore
That makes life worth while in an Imbecile Four.

After the war China will have to deal with a divided Europe and the ambitions of powers at variance with one another. The European concert in the east in the matter of loans and railroad construction has ceased to exist, with small prospects of early revival. Perhaps China seizes her opportunity to cut loose from European pressure and deliver a blow to western influence, taking a chance on outwitting or outfighting her little neighbor some day.

The house of representatives in the Sixty-fourth congress will contain 230 Democrats, 191 Republicans, 7 Progressives, 1 Socialist and 1 Independent. Four vacancies to be filled and one contested seat may change the distribution a trifle, but still there is a clear party majority. In the whole body there will be over 300 members who served in the last house.

Bits of Byplay

By Luke McLuke

Depends on Your Curves.

Dear Luke—Some of my friends accuse me of being a corn fed, and I wish you would answer a question for me. If a girl weighs 150 pounds or less, do you put her in the corn fed class?—Gertie May Davis, Portsmouth, O.

Help!

"Gee, but business is rotten!" said the thin man as he addressed the fat man on the rear platform of the car. "I am laying off hands every day."
"That's funny," returned the fat man. "I'm putting on hands every day."
"What business are you in?" asked the thin man.
"I'm a watchmaker," replied the fat man.

Coming to Blows.

Though soldiers are not prone to brawls, as everybody knows:
When they respond to bugle calls,
Do they not come to blows?

Maybe!

"Why is it that misfortunes come in pairs?" asked the old fogey.
"I don't know," replied the grouch.
"But maybe it is because the other fellow has three of a kind."

Giddap!

To pen this little rime we pause,
It's silly, but we'll try it:
Do we call money "dust" because
We're always blinded by it?

Names Is Names.

A Testimonial.

Dear Luke McLuke, a letter to you, a message of gladness and thanksgiving too. I used to be grouchy, I used to be sad, but reading your Byplay has now made me glad. Most folks go to doctors whenever they're ill, use tonics and dopes and take many a pill. Their fever's enormous, their bills just as high, and it isn't so long till the most of them die. The world grows much sadder with each of these cases, a dismal old outlook that every one faces. But a cure has been found, and I'm writing this letter to show every sick one the way to get better, for I know you will read it and print it for me, and it will go broadcast for people to see. To start this new cure buy a paper today and turn to the page where old Luke's holding sway. Read down through the Byplay and miss not a line, be filled with the joy and the mirth that is fine. Take treatment like this for a day and a year and you will be healthy and full of good cheer. A tip to the weary, a tip to the wise, a tip to the man who is tired of life's sighs. So greetings to you, Luke, for the health thus unfurled. Your cure is a boon to our sinful old world.—Yours in health, Richard M. Harris, Alpha Delta chapter, Phi Sigma Chi, Cambridge, O.

The weigh of the transgressor is short.

Luke McLuke Says

The man who wants a divorce because he finds one of his wife's hairs in his comb when he is home is the same fellow who fixes up his mustache with the comb he finds chained to a washstand in a public place.
Daughter loves the Castle dip because it gives her some much needed exercise, but mother gets her exercise doing the bungalow scrub.

All the heroes are not wearing uniforms and posing on pedestals. Most of the heroes are ordinary looking dubs who wear pants that bag at the knees and shine in the rear. These heroes have been honest and industrious and have raised families and have gone without good clothes and pleasures in order that the kids might have new shoes and that the wife might have something decent to wear on Sunday.
Many a man who spends most of his time mixing drinks wouldn't take a job as bartender for any money.

The man who pays his grocery bills may not get to heaven, but he sure is on the right road.
About four times every day a man feels that he would give ten years of his life if he could read a strange woman's mind when she sizes him up with a peculiar expression in her eyes.

A man feels tough when he rolls home at 3 a. m. and realizes that he must go in and face his wife. But how would he feel if he discovered that he had arrived home before she did and that she wasn't there to face him?

It is funny how a few months of marriage can change a sweet little violet into a big red onion.
There are some lands in which a girl never sees her husband until she marries him. Over here she seldom sees him after she marries him.
Once upon a time an editor published the Ten Commandments, and every one of his subscribers took it as a personal matter and quit taking the paper.

Some men are smart enough to acquire a reputation for being liberal because they give away things which they can't use themselves.

ILLNESS CHEAP IN PRAGUE.

Comparatively Few Doctors There, Yet the Fees Are Small.

According to a consular report, one may at least be ill in Austria and not dread the exorbitant doctor's bill that follows.

The city of Prague, with a population of about 600,000, has only about 800 physicians, or one for every 7,500 persons. A doctor charges for a day-time call in a middle class family only 60 cents, or 10 cents more than if the patient calls on him in his office. For a night call the doctor receives from $1.20 to $2, according to the distance. Only professors at the clinics of the two local universities charge more, receiving $2 to $4 for a house call and $2 for an office visit. As in this country, the physicians give only prescriptions.

About 100 dentists practice in Prague. The average charges are: Drawing one tooth, 40 cents; cement filling, 60 cents to $1; amalgam filling, 80 cents to $2. The annual income of these professional men is estimated as follows: Head professor in charge of clinics, salary paid by the government, $1,440 to $1,900, and $5,000 to $11,000 from private practice; other professors at clinics, salary paid by the government, $1,000, and from private practice, $4,000 to $10,000; general medical practitioner not attached to any clinic, $3,000 to $3,500, the average income of a dentist being $5,000.

MAKING OTHERS HAPPY.

Why Put It Off Till Tomorrow When It May Be Done Today?

Why should we postpone our loving and the being happy that goes with it? The wife we are going to show more affection for as soon as we have made a little more of a pile. The husband we are going to be more companionable and sunny with as soon as we get a little more service in the house, the children whose lives we will enter into more fully as soon as we feel the pressure of circumstances a little less, the people we are going to show how genial we really are as soon as we have time—none of these ways of loving depends on the things we are waiting for.

Indeed, our opportunity comes more now than it will come when we have these things. The very pressure of our days bring us in contact with many people who most need a show of kindness and who will most warmly respond to it. The wife most needs and will most value love in her days when she is most being a helpmeet. The husband most needs and most prizes love in his years of struggle.

What are we waiting for? The kingdom of heaven is within and will not come of circumstances.—Nautilus.

Bjornson's Advice.

There is a story told of Bjornstjerne Bjornson that, arriving at a late hour at the town of Bergen, which was en fete to receive him, he vouchsafed to the expectant people no finer words of wisdom than a general recommendation to go to bed.

In vain they appealed to him for "song or sentiment." The great Bjornson, said he, gave the same advice under conditions all similar, and what was good enough for Berlin must suffice for Bergen.

Three years later, on visiting the town for the second time, the master novelist found a deserted city. Not a light burned in the dismal railway station, no banners waved, no addresses were read by portly burgomasters. In vain Bjornson asked for a cab.

"They have all gone to bed," was the reply. And so Bergen remembered.

Why She Wasn't There.

An agent approaching a house met a little boy at the gate and asked: "Is your mother home?"

"Yes, sir," said the boy politely.

The agent walked across the long lawn and after rapping several times without receiving an answer returned to the youth, saying:

"I thought you said your mother was at home."

"Yes, sir; she is," replied the boy.

"But I have rapped several times without receiving an answer."

"That may be, sir," said the boy. "I don't live there."—Exchange.

First European Railway.

The first carriages that ran on rails in Europe were those of a horse railway between Linz and Budweis, in Austria. This was in working order in 1827. Locomotive railways were much longer coming. The first line in a modern sense was opened from Paris to St. Germain in 1835, but railway development was greatly hindered by a terrible accident on the Paris-Versailles line in 1842. The next was the Brussels-Malines line in Belgium. Belgium was also the first country to begin, in 1830, systematic plans for a national network of railways. Prussia followed in 1835 and Austria-Hungary in 1838. The first great trunk line in Europe was from Paris to Rouen, opened in May, 1843.

MRS. E. W. NELSON DIES IN COLUMBUS

Mrs. E. W. Nelson, aged 45 years, of East Paint street, this city, who has been in Columbus with her husband for some weeks, died at a Columbus hospital, Monday evening, from the effects of an operation for an aggravated case of appendicitis.

Mr. Nelson, who formerly conducted a skating rink in this city, has been operating a rink at Olentangy Park, Columbus, and Mrs. Nelson has been residing with him in that city, closing up their home on Paint street for the summer.

The remains were shipped to this city over the B. & O. Tuesday afternoon, and taken to the deceased's late home. Funeral services will probably be held Wednesday. Interment in the Bloomingburg cemetery.

SERIOUSLY INJURED BY FRIGHTENED COW

Mrs. Morgan Glass, residing between Jeffersonville and Jamestown, near the Greene-Fayette line, is in a serious condition, the result of injuries sustained Sunday evening while out milking.

The cow she was milking wheeled suddenly and knocked Mrs. Glass to the ground, trampling her until her injuries were such that grave fears for her recovery are held. Mrs. Glass was able to crawl to the barn door where her daughter found her and summoned assistance.

The worst injuries were about the head and spine.

WOMAN IS ARRESTED FOR APPLYING MATCH TO STORE

Mrs. Chas. Acton Taken Into Custody By Local Police Upon Warrants Issued in Ross Co., Charging Her With Arson, Larceny and Burglary—Husband Sentenced to Term in Ohio Pen for Similar Work

Acting upon advice from Chillicothe the local police arrested Charles Acton's wife Monday evening, for burning the Charles Higby store at Higby's, Ross county, for burglarizing the place and for larceny. The woman's arrest was the result of a recent confession made by Acton in which he implicated his wife in a number of crimes, including the theft of the Vance horse near this city last year.

Patrolman Baughn made the arrest, locating the woman at the County Children's Home, where she was employed. She was brought to this city and placed in the county jail until Tuesday, when an officer from Chillicothe arrived and took her to Chillicothe to face the charges against her.

The woman bears a most unsavory reputation and time after time has been in trouble with Acton, and has been chased out of Ross, Jackson, Highland and Fayette counties, where she and her husband are alleged to have operated in various lines of crime.

The offense of which the woman is charged in Ross county took place last summer when the Higby store was burglarized and burned to the ground.

A few days ago Acton made a confession in which he stated that his wife was a party to the crime. Little attention was given to his confession because of so many previous "confessions" which had proven false. However, the Sheriff of Ross made an investigation of certain claims advanced by Acton and learned that they were true, and that undoubtedly the Higby fire had been kindled by the Actons, whereupon he caused a warrant for the woman's arrest to be issued and wired to Chief Moore to place the woman under arrest and hold her until he could come to this city and get her. Acton also mentioned the name of one Lou Snyder as being implicated in the Higby burglary and fire.

Following a plea of guilty to the charge of arson Acton Monday afternoon sentenced to an indeterminate term in the Ohio penitentiary, it is learned from Chillicothe. Indications are that Acton will be kept in prison for several years, and that his wife also will find a safe haven in state prison for a number of years to come.

"It's Always STAR
When Good Fellows Get Together"

Men Who Chew Are Men Who DO

IN this country are thousands of miles of railroad tracks, hundreds of railroad bridges, and thousands of trains rushing from place to place.

The men who chew tobacco built these bridges, laid these tracks and drive these fast-moving trains. In every part of the railroad service we find these thoughtful, quick-acting, manly men, making thinking more accurate, labor lighter and pastime more pleasant by chewing STAR tobacco.

STAR is their favorite for worktime and playtime. They find complete tobacco comfort and full tobacco enjoyment in the thick, mellow STAR plug.

You'll like STAR, too—you'll like the honest weight—the superior chewing quality. You'll find the last bite as good as the first and each new plug a new delight.

So many "chewers and doers" chew STAR that one hundred and twenty-five million ten cent pieces are sold each year—enough to follow the railroad from New York to New Orleans, then to San Francisco and enough left over to stretch to Tacoma, Washington.

A bran bath is of great value in conditions of irritability of the skin. If the skin is very itchy it is a soothing treatment for this most uncomfortable condition. If the skin seems to be irritated by the use of plain water—this is frequently the case with infants—a bran bath then will prove very acceptable. If there should be patches of eczema on the skin—or any excoriations—plain water increases the irritation, and a bran bath heals. To prepare a bran bath put a quart of ordinary wheat bran in a bag made of coarse muslin or cheesecloth and place this in four or five gallons of water. The bran bag should be frequently squeezed and moved about until the bath water resembles a thin porridge.

CLEAN UP OF ALLEGED THIEVING CASES MADE IN MAYOR'S COURT

Riley Justis Fined $200 and Sentenced to 30 Days in Workhouse—Oren Benjamin Added to List of Accused—Two Released and Three Bound Over. One Remains in Jail.

A general clean-up occurred in the Mayor's Court Monday evening, when the cases of the several men implicated in a confession by Riley Justis last week were variously disposed of. Each of the men had been named by Justis as members of a gang of chicken, corn and hog thieves, to which Justis belonged.

Another has been added to the list of implicated. Orrin Benjamin appeared before the court Monday evening. Benjamin was said to have purchased corn and hay stolen by the gang.

Riley Justis, who was the first arrested and whose statement led to the detention of the others, was fined $200 and sentenced to 30 days in the workhouse by the mayor. He was taken to the Xenia workhouse Tuesday to begin service.

Orrin Benjamin, Elmer Cox and Allen Justis were arraigned and waived examination. They were bound over to the grand jury. The bond of Benjamin was placed at $200 and of the others $100 each. All were allowed to go free on furnishing bond.

Foster Pearson and Cliff McCoy were released after thorough examination.

Bert McCoy remains in jail. No action in his case has been taken.

The declaration of Riley Justis, indicating the existence of a systematic thieving organization, has aroused great interest in the county. It is thought probable that other arrests will be made.

Attorney Lee Rankin, representing the Anti-Horse Thief Association, is handling the prosecution of the cases. The three defendants bound over to the grand jury, Benjamin, Cox and Allen Justis, have retained Attorney Charles A. Reid to defend them.

BOOSTERS WILL VISIT NEIGHBORS IN AUTOMOBILES

With the purpose of informing everyone within a wide radius of what is in store for them during the Y. M. C. A. matinee races, June 17, a party of Y. M. C. A. boosters will begin this evening a series of trips which will include neighboring towns in and out of the county.

With ten automobile loads of prominent citizens and a band, the boosters will leave the Y. M. C. A. at 6:30 this evening for Leesburg, Greenfield and Good Hope. Arriving at each of these places the band will give a concert and speakers of the party will contribute soap box speeches with reference to the forthcoming event.

It is planned that such trips be taken nightly, or as convenient, until all places of the itinerary are visited.

The arrangements for the big matinee races are going rapidly and successfully forward, it is announced. The advertising committee has been busy during the week past with its cards and banners and advertisements and has well "covered" the county.

It is announced that Frank Woodland, of this city, secretary of the Ohio Racing Circuit, has been engaged to start the races. Mr. Charles Mark, of the program committee, stated Tuesday that the slow classes are filling up rapidly and he expects a tip top card.

SIX VENIREMEN ARE DRAWN TODAY

Because Wm. J. Wilson, Harry Hettinger and Chas. Lowe, could not be found in Fayette county, the jury commission drew six additional veniremen to add to the special venire drawn in the John Denner murder case.

The cost of drawing the six veniremen was $10, and the new members of the venire are: Frank D. Hays, 1st ward; A. P. Kilgore, 2nd ward; Talmadge Wilson, Concord; A. L. Moore, Union; Grant Stoughton, Paint; Albert Armstrong, Jefferson.

Where a venireman cannot be found, two additional veniremen are drawn to fill the place.

ADDITIONAL PERSONALS.

Hon. C. A. Reid was called to Xenia on professional business today.

Mrs. John Malster and daughter Miss Lucy Malster, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Baldwin left Tuesday for a visit in Atlanta before returning to their home in Washington county.

Miss Ethel Arnold, of Cleveland, and Mr. M. L. Mace, of Norfolk, are the guests of Mr. J. D. Mace and family, east of town, for several days.

Miss Lissa Stewart has as her guest, Mrs. Alice Southard Dillon of Adelphi.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben C. Kellar came down from Mt. Sterling Monday night to be the guests of Mrs. Kellar's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kerns.

Cincinnati Suffers Loss.

By the appointment of Stewart J. Bolin of Columbus as United States District Attorney to succeed Sherman T. McPherson, who resigned at the request of the government following objections to the allowance of enormous fees to McPherson and his assistant, Harley Burns, in the Columbus "Gleo" cases, Cincinnati sustains another severe jolt to her prestige.

The appointment of Mr. Bolin means that for the first time in decades the office of the United States District Attorney will be located in Columbus.

This is only one of the many changes that have occurred within the last half dozen years which proves how far behind the procession of progressive cities Cincinnati is falling and how generally that fact is recognized throughout Ohio and the nation.

Cincinnati people, as usual, raise a loud and vehement complaint. With each one of these distinct losses the city suffers the residents of the Queen City feel deeply their humiliation and appreciate the extent of these multiplied events but they seem powerless to pry off the political and stand pat barnacles that are dragging the city backward.

The Coming of Summer

The past few days have placed a quietus upon speculation as to whether this year would be a duplication of the famous 1816—a year without a summer—and has proved a foretaste of ideal summer weather, just the kind that Fayette county has been needing for its big corn crop.

Everybody who remembered a year with little summer weather has been busily brushing up recollections and people were fearing that 1915 was to add another unseasonable record.

The year of 1875 is remembered by prominent residents of our town as being notably rainy, with practically no summer, and it is claimed that the year 1816, only a memory now, was absolutely without a summer.

Following a mild winter and early spring in 1816 May was a month of winter temperature, with snow and ice which killed not only the fruit, but even the leaves of the trees.

June, of the same year, refused to warm up and instead of June roses there was ice as far south as Tennessee, while snow lay ten inches deep in Vermont.

Tillers of the soil planted and replanted corn; but over all this United States none attained maturity, and agricultural conditions were distressing.

Although July and August saw no ice there was no hot weather and winter set in before the harvest moon went down and proved the most severe on record.

Nothing to equal climatic conditions of 1816 has since been recorded and people are very willing to let it hold this record and are glad to have the warmth and sunshine which will ripen to maturity crops, fruits and vegetation.

Republics of the Two Americas Must Assume the Task of Reincarnating Civilization

IN the face of this enormous catastrophe the bearing of America cannot be but expectant and reconstructive if, as I believe, there is still reason to trust that the idea of human solidarity is the final end of social evolution. Nevertheless neglect in the consideration of the factors which have produced the crisis for the purpose of avoiding them in the organization of our international policy in America would be, if not criminal on our part, AT LEAST A DEMONSTRATION THAT OUR COUNTRIES ARE AS YET UNPREPARED TO COMPREHEND THE MISSION THAT IS DESTINED FOR US IN THE CONCERT OF THE NATIONS.

Hence at the present hour it is for us—the countries far removed from the scene and aloof from the interests in the midst of which the European dissensions have been growing until this terrible climax—to take up the arduous but glorious task of reincarnating modern civilization. But to do this it becomes essential to readjust the system of our political ties; to correct, until they are made to vanish, the causes of possible disagreements.

FINALLY, WE MUST CEMENT AMERICAN SOLIDARITY, FOUNDING IT UPON THE MAINTENANCE OF THE PRINCIPLES OF RIGHT, OF JUSTICE AND OF RECIPROCAL TOLERANCE.

THE PERFECT CAR AND ITS ACCESSORIES.

An Imbecile Four rolled up to the door,
All covered with extra devices galore,
With trunk, anti-rattlers, self-starter and clock,
With patent absorbers to take out
the shock,
With microscope, primer, dust covers
and chains,
With a twenty man top which gets
stuck when it rains,
With fire extinguisher, rims which
demonst,
With covers and holders and racks
without count,
With battery testers, a few extra
tubes,
A slick cigar lighter to capture the
tubes,
With dimmers and wrenches, gas
savers and pumps,
And re-enforced springs to take care of the bumps

Said I to the agent: "The car looks quite nice,
Please quote me (with discounts)
your very best price."
He figured it out on the back of his cuff,
One third for the car and two thirds
for the stuff,
Oh, it isn't the power, the strength
or the speed,
The "get there" or "come back"
which this car really needs,
But it's trappings and gewgaws and whatnots galore
That makes life worth while in an Imbecile Four.

After the war China will have to deal with a divided Europe and the ambitions of powers at variance with one another. The European concert in the east in the matter of loans and railroad construction has ceased to exvival. Perhaps China seizes her opportunity to cut loose from European pressure and deliver a blow to western influence, taking a chance on outwit-

some day.

Bits of Byplay

Depends on Your Curves.

Dear Luke—Some of my friends accuse me of being a corn fed, and I wish you would answer a question for me.
If a girl weighs 150 pounds or less, do you put her in the corn fed class?—
Gertie May Davis, Portsmouth, O.

Help!

"Gee, but business is rotten!" said
the thin man as he addressed the fat man on the rear platform of the car.
"I am laying off hands every day."

"That's funny," returned the fat
man. "I'm putting on hands every day."

"What business are you in?" asked the thin man.

"I'm a watchmaker," replied the fat man.

Coming to Blows.

Though soldiers are not prone to brawls,
As everybody knows;
When they respond to bugle calls,
Do they not come to blows?

Maybe!

"Why is it that misfortunes come in pairs?" asked the old fogey.

"I don't know," replied the grouch.
"But maybe it is because the other fellow has three of a kind."

Giddap!

To pen this little rime we pause,
It's silly, but we'll try it;
Do we call money "duet" because
We're always blinded by it?

A Testimonial.

Dear Luke McLuke, a letter to you,
a message of gladness and thanksgiving too. I used to be grouchy, I used to be sad, but reading your Byplay has now made me glad. Most folks go to doctors whenever they're ill, use tonics and dopes and take many a pill.
Their fever's enormous, their bills just as high, and it isn't so long till the most of them die. The world grows much sadder with each of these cases, a dismal old outlook that every one faces. But a cure has been found, and I'm writing this letter to show
every sick one the way to get better, for I know you will read it and print it for me, and it will go broadcast for people to see. To start this new cure buy a paper today and turn to the page where old Luke's holding sway. Read down through the Byplay and miss not a line, be filled with the joy and the mirth that is fine. Take treatment like this for a day and a year and you will be healthy and full of good cheer
A tip to the weary, a tip to the wise, a tip to the man who is tired of life's sighs. So greetings to you, Luke, for the health thus unfurled. Your cure is a boon to our sinful old world.—Yours in health, Richard M. Harris, Alpha bridge, O.

Things to Worry About.

Our Daily Special.

The weigh of the transgressor is

Luke McLuke Says

The man who wants a divorce because he finds one of his wife's hairs in his comb when he is home is the same fellow who fixes up his mustache with the comb he finds chained to a washstand in a public place.

Daughter loves the Castle dip because it gives her some much needed exercise, but mother gets her exercise doing the bungalow scrub.

All the heroes are not wearing uniforms and posing on pedestals. Most of the heroes are ordinary looking dubs who wear pants that bag at the knees and shine in the rear. These heroes have been honest and industrious and have raised families and have gone without good clothes and pleasures in order that the kids might have new shoes and that the wife might have something decent to wear on Sunday.

Many a man who spends most of his time mixing drinks wouldn't take a job as bartender for any money.

The man who pays his grocery bills may not get to heaven, but he sure is on the right road.

About four times every day a man feels that he would give ten years of his life if he could read a strange woman's mind when she sizes him up with a peculiar expression in her eyes.

A man feels tough when he rolls home at 3 a. m. and realizes that he must go in and face his wife. But how would he feel if he discovered that he had arrived home before she did and that she wasn't there to face him?

It is funny how a few months of marriage can change a sweet little violet into a big red onion.

There are some lands in which a girl never sees her husband until she marries him. Over here she seldom sees him after she marries him.

Once upon a time an editor published the Ten Commandments, and every one of his subscribers took it as a per-

ILLNESS CHEAP IN PRAGUE.

Comparatively Few Doctors There, Yet
the Fees Are Small.

According to a consular report, one may at least be ill in Austria and not dread the exorbitant doctor's bill that follows.

The city of Prague, with a population of about 600,000, has only about 800 physicians, or one for every 7,500 persons. A doctor charges for a daytime call in a middle class family only 60 cents, or 10 cents more than if the patient calls on him in his office. For a night call the doctor receives from $1.20 to $2, according to the distance.
Only professors at the clinics of the two local universities charge more, receiving $2 to $4 for a house call and $2 for an office visit. As in this country, the physicians give only prescriptions.

About 100 dentists practice in Prague.
The average charges are: Drawing one tooth, 40 cents; cement filling, 60 cents to $1; amalgam filling, 80 cents to $2.
The annual income of these professional men is estimated as follows:
Head professor in charge of clinics,
salary paid by the government, $1,440 to $1,600, and $5,000 to $11,000 from private practice; other professors at clinics, salary paid by the government,
$1,000, and from private practice, $4, 000 to $10,000; general medical practitioner not attached to any clinic, $3,000 to $3,500, the average income of a dentist being $5,000.

MAKING OTHERS HAPPY.

Why Put It Off Till Tomorrow When
It May Be Done Today?

Why should we postpone our loving and the being happy that goes with it?

The wife we are going to show more affection for as soon as we have made a little more of a pile. The husband we are going to be more companionable and sunny with as soon as we get a little more service in the house, the children whose lives we will enter into more fully as soon as we feel the pressure of circumstances a little less, the people we are going to show how genial we really are as soon as we have time—none of these ways of loving depends on the things we are waiting for.

Indeed, our opportunity comes more now than it will come when we have these things. The very pressure of our days bring us in contact with many people who most need a show of kindness and who will most warmly respond to it. The wife most needs and will most value love in her days when she is most being a helpmeet. The husband most needs and most prizes love in his years of struggle.

What are we waiting for? The kingdom of heaven is within and will not come of circumstances.—Nautilus.

Bjornson's Advice.

There is a story told of Bjornstjerne Bjornson that, arriving at a late hour at the town of Bergen, which was enfete to receive him, he vouchsafed to the expectant people no finer words of wisdom than a general recommendation to go to bed.

In vain they appealed to him for
"song or sentiment." The great Bismarck, said he, gave the same advice under conditions all similar, and what was good enough for Berlin must suffice for Bergen.

Three years later, on visiting the town for the second time, the master novelist found a deserted city. Not a light burned in the dismal railway station, no banners waved, no addresses were read by portly burgomasters. In vain Bjornson asked for a cab.

"They have all gone to bed," was the reply. And so Bergen remembered.

Why She Wasn't There.

An agent approaching a house met a little boy at the gate and asked:

"Is your mother home?"

"Yes, sir," said the boy politely.

The agent walked across the long lawn and after rapping several times without receiving an answer returned to the youth, saying:

"I thought you said your mother was at home."

"Yes, sir; she is," replied the boy.

"But I have rapped several times without receiving an answer."

"That may be, sir," said the boy. "I don't live there."—Exchange.

First European Railway.

The first carriages that ran on rails in Europe were those of a horse railway between Linz and Budweis, in Austria. This was in working order in 1827. Locomotive railways were much longer coming. The first line in a modern sense was opened from Paris to St. Germain in 1835, but railway development was greatly hindered by a terrible accident on the Paris-Versailles line in 1842. The next was the Brussels-Malines line in Belgium. Belgium was also the first country to begin, in 1830, systematic plans for a national network of railways. Prussia followed in 1835 and Austria-Hungary in 1838.
The first great trunk line in Europe was from Paris to Rouen, opened in May, 1843.

Family Pride.

Mrs. Blunt—Well, Louisa, I don't suppose you will attempt to deny that your original ancestors were stone age ruffians who lived in a damp cave.
Mrs. Tree—If my earliest ancestors were a part of the geologic period of which you speak they must have had a red sandstone chateau of their own on Flinthed avenue, with stalactite decorations and running water on the first floor.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

taste.

The Solution.

"I wish I knew how Blinks lives

CITY COUNCIL PASSES MORE IMPROVEMENT LEGISLATION

Ordinance Introduced Also includes One Prohibiting Placing of Posters on Phone Poles, and One to Eliminate Noise of Motor Driven Vehicles and to Dim Lights on Same--State Health Board Sends Letter.

More street legislation was enacted by the city council Monday night, and a number of petitions for minor improvements were given attention. All members were present and several citizens occupied the spectators' lobby.

The Columbus avenue and Paint street petitions for improvement by paving, were passed over because the specifications and ordinances had not been prepared. The lighting question also was carried over, and the three proposals will probably be taken up at the special meeting called for Monday evening, June 21.

More time was granted the committee on the street sweeper.

A petition for a sewer on Temple street, from Wilson street to Delaware, a distance of four squares, was presented, and ten citizens agreed to tap the sewer. The Service Committee and engineer were directed to investigate and report in two weeks.

Rose avenue and Pearl street property owners petitioned for an extension of the water main from North to Delaware street. The petition was referred to the service committee.

Main street citizens, Court to Temple, asked council to take steps to keep the street clean. The service committee was instructed to investigate.

An ordinance to prevent the posting of bills, etc., upon telephone, telegraph and electric light poles in the city, was introduced, and a penalty of $10 to $200 provided for violations. Veal said the ordinance was, to the best of his belief, similar to one already in existence. M. Tracey protested against passing the ordinance, saying that the newspapers would be the ones to benefit by publishing the ordinance at the expense of the city, whereupon President Melvin informed him that the telephone companies and other companies interested had agreed to pay for the legal publication of the ordinance. All voted yet with the exception of M. Tracey. The ordinance was passed.

An ordinance to regulate motor driven vehicles was presented. The ordinance makes it an offense to permit auto or motorcycle exhausts to remain wide open in the principal parts of the city, whether the machine is standing still or moving. Howell urged an amendment to include the dimming of auto lamps on the main streets, and the ordinance was carried over until the amendment could be prepared.

Auditor McFadden's report for May was read. Mayor Coffey's report, showing $77.80 in fines; $23 in street licenses, and $4.00 in dog licenses collected, was read.

The assessing ordinance for the Washington avenue improvement was read and passed under suspension.

An ordinance determining to proceed with the improvement of Leesburg avenue was read and passed, but some question arising over the width of the street from the old corporation line to the new. The Service Committee was named to look after the matter and confer with the county commissioners.

An ordinance to pay the city's portion of the cost of improving West court street, East street and the Craig-Penn alley, by the issuance of $14,000 in bonds, was passed.

The Commercial Bank was awarded the bonds on Circle avenue and North street improvements, at $142 premium, par and accrued interest. Three other bids were far behind that of the Commercial Bank.

A letter from the State Board of Health, asking for further information concerning the construction of a sewer emptying into Paint creek in opposition to the wishes of the Board, and urging the attention of the Mayor and council to the proposed sanitary sewer system, was read, and after some joking was referred to Mayor Coffey for attention.

A check from Rosser, Harper and Stewart, bidders on the Circle avenue contract and which the bidders for feited, was ordered collected.

The service committee was asked to investigate the request of citizens on Oak street, between Main and Fayette, wherein permission was sought to lay the sidewalk at the curb and narrow the walk two feet. Council adjourned to meet in two weeks.

In Social Circles

The Commencement Dance will be held on the evening of June the seventeenth at the Elks' Hall.

Miss Jean Howat gave a beautiful luncheon, of perfect appointments, Tuesday at one o'clock, for Miss Ivah Haines, whose marriage to Mr. Hays Dill takes place Thursday, June the twenty-fourth.

Pink and white were the prevailing tints in the artistic decorations; the table being laid with twelve covers.

Miss Haines was wearing a gown of canary taffeta, with cream lace bodice and black velvet trimmings, most becoming to her brunette beauty.

Thirty young matrons and girls enjoyed the spontaneous hospitality of Mrs. Martin Hughey, at a delightful Kensington, Tuesday afternoon.

The rooms were redolent with a profusion of old fashioned roses, in graceful arrangement, and a pink and white scheme was prettily carried out in both decorations and the delicious two course collation served.

Assisting in the hospitalities were Mrs. John Noble, Mrs. J. W. Hughey and Mrs. Foster Lane.

CLEAN UP OF ALLEGED THIEVING CASES MADE IN MAYOR'S COURT

Riley Justis Fined $200 and Sentenced to 30 Days in Workhouse—Oren Benjamin Added to List of Accused—Two Released and Three Bound Over. One Remains in Jail.

A general clean-up occurred in the Mayor's Court Monday evening, when the cases of the several men implicated in a confession by Riley Justis last week were variously disposed of. Each of the men had been named by Justis as members of a gang of chicken, corn and hog thieves, to which Justis belonged.

Another has been added to the list of implicated. Orrin Benjamin appeared before the court Monday evening. Benjamin was said to have purchased corn and hay stolen by the gang.

Riley Justis, who was the first arrested and whose statement led to the detention of the others, was fined $200 and sentenced to 30 days in the workhouse by the mayor. He was taken to the Xenia workhouse Tuesday to begin service.

Orrin Benjamin, Elmer Cox and Allen Justis were arraigned and waived examination. They were bound over to the grand jury. The bond of Benjamin was placed at $200 and of the others $100 each. All were allowed to go free on furnishing bond.

Foster Pearson and Cliff McCoy were released after thorough examination.

Bert McCoy remains in jail. No action in his case has been taken.

The declaration of Riley Justis, indicating the existence of a systematic thieving organization, has aroused great interest in the county. It is thought probable that other arrests will be made.

Attorney Lee Rankin, representing the Anti-Horse Thief Association, is handling the prosecution of the cases. The three defendants bound over to the grand jury, Benjamin, Cox and Allen Justis, have retained Attorney Charles A. Reid to defend them.

INCREASE OF TWO MILLS FOR RURAL ROADS ASKED

County Commissioners Pass Resolution Declaring Amount of Taxes Insufficient for Fayette Road Improvement and Ask for Submission to Voters of Two Mill Levy for Five Years.

Believing that the taxes for road building purposes are insufficient to properly repair and improve the roads of the county, the County Commissioners, by unanimous vote, Tuesday morning adopted a resolution asking for a special two mills levy in addition to the regular levy, and asking the Deputy State Supervisors of Elections call an election for submitting the proposal to the people. The resolution is almost identical to that of last year.

The resolution reads: "Be it resolved by the county commissioners of Fayette county, Ohio, that the amount of taxes that may be raised for the improvement of public roads and highways within said county by the levy of taxes at the maximum rate authorized by sections 5649-2 and 5649-3 of the General Code within its taxing district, will be insufficient and that it is expected to levy taxes for the said purpose at a rate in excess of such rate and that it will require an increase of rate of two mills above the maximum rate of taxes for the period of five years for said purposes; and be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be certified to the Deputy State Supervisors of Elections of Fayette county, Ohio, for further proceedings according to law."

The Deputy State Supervisors of Elections will call an election on the proposal, and it is more than probable that the primary election date will also be the date of the vote on the proposal above mentioned.

Misses Lena Miller, of Hillsboro, and Dinta Mason, of Lynchburg, returned home Monday, after a week's visit with Miss Pauline Jacobs at Parrots.

BOOSTERS WILL VISIT NEIGHBORS IN AUTOMOBILES

With the purpose of informing everyone within a wide radius of what is in store for them during the Y. M. C. A. matinee races, June 17, a party of Y. M. C. A. boosters will begin this evening a series of trips which will include neighboring towns in and out of the county.

With ten automobile loads of prominent citizens and a band, the boosters will leave the Y. M. C. A. at 6:30 this evening for Leesburg, Greenfield and Good Hope. Arriving at each of these places the band will give a concert and speakers of the party will contribute soap box speeches with reference to the forthcoming event.

It is planned that such trips be taken nightly, or as convenient, until all places of the itinerary are visited.

The arrangements for the big matinee races are going rapidly and successfully forward, it is announced. The advertising committee has been busy during the week past with its cards and banners and advertisements and has well "covered" the county.

It is announced that Frank Woodland, of this city, secretary of the Ohio Racing Circuit, has been engaged to start the races. Mr. Charles Mark, of the program committee, stated Tuesday that the slow classes are filling up rapidly and he expects a tip top card.

SIX VENIREMEN ARE DRAWN TODAY

Because Wm. J. Wilson, Harry Hettinger and Chas. Lowe, could not be found in Fayette county, the jury commission drew six additional veniremen to add to the special venire drawn in the John Denner murder case.

The cost of drawing the six veniremen was $10, and the new members of the venire are: Frank D. Hays, 1st ward; A. P. Kilgore, 2nd ward; Talmadge Wilson, Concord; A. L. Moore, Union; Grant Stoughton, Paint; Albert Armstrong, Jefferson.

Where a venireman cannot be found, two additional veniremen are drawn to fill the place.

ADDITIONAL PERSONALS.

Hon. C. A. Reid was called to Xenia on professional business today.

Mrs. John Malster and daughter Miss Lucy Malster, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Baldwin, left Tuesday for a visit in Atlanta before returning to their home in Washington county.

Miss Ethel Arnold, of Cleveland, and Mr. M. L. Mace, of Norfolk, are the guests of Mr. J. D. Mace and family, east of town, for several days.

Miss Lissa Stewart has as her guest, Mrs. Alice Southard Dillon of Adelphi.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben C. Kellar came down from Mt. Sterling Monday night to be the guests of Mrs. Kellar's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kerns.

REPLY TO BERLIN IS HELD BACK

Washington, June 8.—The note which the United States is to send to Germany with respect to submarine warfare was prepared with the utmost expedition and has not been subjected to an hour's unnecessary delay since it was first drafted. The president's desire to have the document state explicitly the position of the United States government so that it can not possibly be misunderstood abroad or invite protracted discussion on the fundamental issues involved, is chiefly responsible for the fact that the note has not yet gone.

Legal officers of the government examined the note with minute care and sent it back to the president with some changes. It will require further consideration by the president and his cabinet. On the highest authority, it was stated that as soon as the president regarded the communication as satisfactory in phraseology it would be transmitted to Ambassador Gerard.

While the president has been at work on the document, special agents of the United States government have by their investigation corroborated in every detail the statement made in the first American note—that the Lusitania was unarmed.

At the same time Myer Gebhard, personal envoy of Count Von Bernstorff, has been voyaging nearer to Germany, carrying an important message from the German embassy concerning the American point of view on submarine warfare. The latter circumstance, however, was declared in high official quarters to have been merely a coincidence and in no way to have influenced the progress of the note.

Officials familiar with the situation dissipated the notion that any influences had arisen to delay the sending of the communication. One of the president's closest advisers declared that there had been no intentional delay, but that the note had required much scrutiny and careful consideration.

In diplomatic quarters the dispatch of the note is awaited with intense interest. Dr. Constantin Dumba, the Austrian minister, left today for Lenox, Mass., for the summer. Count Von Bernstorff will wait for the sending of the note before going to summer quarters of the embassy at Cedarhurst, L. I.

SURGERY IS RECOMMENDED

Albany, N. Y., June 8.—Cancer is claiming 4,000 victims annually in New York city alone, according to statistics compiled by the state health department. The total in the whole state is 8,000 annually. To check the spread of the disease, which has continued to increase without interruption for the past fifteen years, Dr. Herman M. Biggs, state commissioner of health, has instituted a statewide campaign against the malady. He intends to carry on a fight through the physicians, the schools and other institutional mediums. One of the points being driven home by the health department authorities is that cancer in its early stages yields to surgery. Hundreds of cases to prove this assertion are on record in the health department.

THE FALL OF LEMBERG IS IMMINENT

London, June 8.—The Austro-German forces which captured Przemyśl are battering their way eastward and, according to both the German and Austrian official communications, are at one point in the southeast hardly more than sixty miles from the Russian frontier. The troops which swept through Stryj have continued farther east until they are thirty miles beyond that town and equally beyond Lemberg, the position of which appears perilous. Farther north they are eighteen miles to the east of Przemyśl. So that, roughly speaking, the encircling movement on Lemberg is duplicating that at Przemyśl.

Telegrams from Vienna say that Lemberg, the capital of the Austrian crown land of Galicia, may be taken at any moment by the Austro-German forces. One message from the Austrian capital says that the Austrians are twenty-five miles from the town and other advices estimate the distance at only ten miles.

The Germans are also on the offensive in the Baltic provinces. Their official statement records the crossing of the river Windau, to the southeast of Libau. A Petrograd dispatch received in London says: "Telegrams from Riga report the Germans active to the north, northeast and east of Libau. The military authorities expect heavy fighting at Mostisk, where the Russians will make a determined stand."

Although the battle squadrons of the German and Russian fleets have not yet been engaged, there have been clashes between submarines and destroyers, torpedo boats and air craft, in which it is reported that three German transports and the Russian transport Yensel have been sunk. How many lives were lost aboard the Germans is not yet known, and Petrograd announces that thirty-two of her lost ship were saved. It is apparent that a large German squadron which has been held at Kiel has stepped out and is conveying a number of transports through the Baltic.

A general Italian advance is taking place across the Isonzo river from Caporetto to the sea, a distance of about forty miles. The movement is one of importance and hard fighting is taking place at Gradisca and in the vicinity of this town. The resistance of the Austrians is daily becoming stronger.

It was announced at the admiralty that a Zeppelin visited the east coast of England, dropping incendiary and explosive bombs. Five persons were killed and forty were injured. Two fires were caused by the incendiary bombs.

TEUTONS STILL PUSH FORWARD

Amsterdam, June 8.—The Austrian war office issued the following statement at Vienna: "Considerable progress north of Moschiska, in Galicia, has been made by the attacks of the central Austro-German forces, which have advanced to a point twenty-five miles from Lemberg. General Linington's army has gained a firm footing on the northern bank of the Denister after successfully storming a bridge at Zuranawa. More than 30,000 prisoners have been captured since June 1 in the battle around Przemyśl."

OHIO BRIEFS

Governor Defends Vetoes.

Columbus, June 8.—Governor Willis, in discussing his vetoes of items in the budget, said: "No legislature made as careful provision for betterments in housing conditions of the state institutions which care for the wards of the state as has the present legislature, and after a vigorous exercise of the veto this still is so." He pointed out that for betterments at the state institutions the last Democratic legislature appropriated only $322,000, while the present legislature appropriated $1,526,000, from which the governor cut $485,000, leaving a sum of $1,040,000.

Shots Exchanged With Suspects.

Jackson, O., June 8.—Alonzo Radcliffe and William Jones were arrested on a charge of horse stealing after an exciting chase, during which many shots were exchanged. The sheriff and his party tracked the men for several miles and came upon them near the Gallia county line.

McDermott Law Attacked.

Cincinnati, June 8.—An attack on the McDermott liquor license decentralizer, defense of home rule and plans for a liquor interest organization in each county of the state were included in the address by Maurice J. Freiberg, president of the Ohio Wine and Spirit association, at the opening session of its convention here.

Hit by Automobile.

Massillon, O., June 8.—Frank Miller, a farmer of Navarre, died at the city hospital from a fractured skull, received when he was struck by an automobile. He did not regain consciousness.

Rev. George Smead Dead.

Toledo, June 8.—Rev. George L. Smead, eighty, for twenty-five years superintendent of the state school for the blind, is dead. He is survived by his widow and two sons.

Cincinnati Fire.

Cincinnati, June 8.—Fire here partially destroyed the five-story brick building occupied by the Cincinnati Grain company, causing a loss estimated at $100,000.

MIDDIES SAID TO CHEAT IN THEIR EXAMS

Annapolis, Md., June 8.—That efforts of the midshipmen to obtain advance information as to the questions to be asked on their examinations were systematic and continuous, that a large proportion of the midshipmen benefited by them at the late annual examination and that theft was resorted to for the purpose of securing the questions, were some of the startling productions at the first session of the court of inquiry appointed by Secretary Daniels to investigate the whole matter of the use of unfair means in recitations and examinations at the naval academy.

The matter was brought to the attention of the department by ten recent cases where midshipmen have been recommended for dismissal. Three of these midshipmen have been dismissed and have left the institution, and the recommendation of the superintendent in the cases of seven more are in the hands of the secretary of the navy. Action is not likely to be taken by him, however, until the present court completes its work. It appeared from the testimony given before the board of investigation that members of all classes of midshipmen admitted that the majority of them had access before the examination to the questions which were actually asked.

CARRANZA IS SEEKING RECOGNITION

Washington, June 8.—A reply from Carranza to President Wilson's note of warning to the Mexican leaders is expected hourly at the Carranza agency in this city.

The expectation here is that Carranza in his reply will attempt to pave the way for a formal application for recognition by the Washington government. It is understood to be the purpose of Carranza to move forward as rapidly as possible in the next few weeks, reoccupy Mexico City and in other ways give evidence that he has attained control that entitles him to recognition. Officials of the Carranza agency say that upon the occupation of Mexico City by Carranza forces, the populace will be fed and relief extended to noncombatants in other sections of the republic.

The administration has not yet come to any conclusion that forecloses the possibility of recognizing Carranza. The president has, in fact, selected no one for recognition, and it will be up to Carranza in any event to show his control is as widespread as has been represented.

Official advices received here tend to support the claims of the Carranzistas that Villa's star is waning and that he can not long maintain himself as a factor in the situation. Carranza officials in Washington insist that Villa is short of funds and ammunition, and that his recent attempt to open communications with Carranza to talk about peace is an acknowledgment of defeat.

The exodus of Americans and other foreigners from Mexico City has begun, according to advices received at the state department from the Brazilian minister at the Mexican capital. A special train bound for Vera Cruz, carrying 300 men, women and children, left Mexico City.

Duval West, who made an investigation of conditions in Mexico in behalf of the administration and who will act as the adviser of the president and the secretary of state on the Mexican question, will return to Washington on June 15 to take up his duties.

It is reported from El Paso that General Villa has decided to ask General Carranza to agree to a neutral territory for a conference to consider the suggestions contained in President Wilson's note.

EXECUTED HAD GOLD FOR DIAZ

Brownsville, Tex., June 8.—Advices telling of the execution of thirteen Mexicans, three of them generals, by the forces of General Nafarrate, in Tamaulapas, Nuevo Leon, have been received here. The executions are said to have occurred after the capture of the party, following a short fight with a detachment of forty of Nafarrate's Indians. The men were en route to the United States and had with them Mexican gold and other money valued at $1,500,000 Mexican gold, with which they proposed to aid Felix Diaz in forming another revolution. These facts, it is claimed, were revealed by papers found on the men. The money was sent to Monterey.

The party included General Eugenio Aguirre Benavide, who has been active in many campaigns in the late Mexican wars, and General Julian Delgado. The victims had been serving with General Eulalio Gutierrez, who recently issued a proclamation that he recognized his error in quitting Carranza's banner.

TOO MANY DOCTORS IN STATE OF OHIO

Cleveland, June 8.—According to Dr. Henry P. Pritchett of the Carnegie foundation for the advancement of teaching there are too many physicians in Ohio. Dr. Pritchett says that 5,568 of the 7,912 physicians in the state were trained in Ohio medical schools. "In Ohio there is a physician for every 630 of population—three times the number found in a thickly settled country like Germany," says Dr. Pritchett. He states that Columbus is the state's most bedeviled city, where there is one for every 520 inhabitants. Cincinnati has one for every 560, Cleveland has one for every 500 and Toledo one for every 1,000.

TREATY EXISTS BETWEEN ROUMANIA AND GERMANY

London, June 8.—The following dispatch from Berlin was received here: "Political discussions in Bucharest, Roumania, brought to light the fact that there exists a formal treaty between Austria, Germany and Roumania. The treaty, which continues until 1920, regulates the relations among these countries and binds Roumania, in case of war, not to attack her allies."

MISSION OF HOLLANDER

Washington, June 8.—Hope of giving impetus to a movement to bring about mediation of the European war through a combination of neutral nations has brought Van Ghel Gelde-meister of Holland to this country. His visit to the United States follows visits to Germany and England, in both of which countries he is said to have satisfied himself that there was some hope that mediation would be accepted if offered to the leading belligerents in a proper manner. President Wilson and his advisers do not believe that the time is yet ripe for any peace move. The president at the beginning of the war offered his services to the warring nations as a mediator and that offer is still standing.

TWO ALLEGED WIRE TAPPERS ARE HELD

New York, June 8.—Fred Gondori and Edward Fitzgerald, held in $25,000 bail each on charges of grand larceny in swindling William O'Reilly of Toronto out of $17,400 by a wire tapping game, were turned over to Detective Daly. He presented bench warrants for their arrests following two indictments against each man, handed down by the grand jury.

Washington, June 8.—President Wilson selected Arthur Espy for assistant treasurer of the United States at Cincinnati.

FRENCH ARE VICTORIOUS

Paris, June 8.—The following official communique was issued by the war office:

"In the sector north of Arras the fighting continues to be of an extremely violent character and we are still making progress. Artillery combats have continued without interruption at Lefond Buval, at Ablaine, at Souchez, at Neuville and at Ecurelle.

"The attack which we delivered to the southeast of Hebuterne proved a complete success. We captured in one charge both of the enemy's lines, together with the Tontvent farm, and took 400 non-wounded prisoners, including seven officers. The enemy left several hundreds of dead on the field.

"North of the Aisne the enemy has made renewed and desperate attempts to recapture the two lines of trenches which we took from him Sunday. After having brought up reinforcements in automobiles from a point eighty kilometers away, he delivered a furious assault, which was completely repulsed. The Germans left 2,000 dead on the field at this point. We captured 250 prisoners."

Every American who likes civilized progress will be pleased at the new commercial move of Iceland establishing a trade line with our ports. There is a romantic sentiment for the hardy Norseman who fights for a living against ice and snow, as our pioneers battled against savages and beasts. Needless to say, the Icelanders can use about everything we can offer, and we can use their fish, mutton and wool. "Skool to the northland! Skool!"

"Too proud to fight" really means too proud to be forced into war, as the big European nations claim to have been against their will. If the United States holds out it will be the biggest peace proposition in the world.

CITY COUNCIL PASSES MORE IMPROVEMENT LEGISLATION

Ordinance Introduced Also includes One Prohibiting Placing of Posters on Phone Poles, and One to Eliminate Noise of Motor Driven Vehicles and to Dim Lights on Same--State Health Board Sends Letter.

More street legislation was enacted by the city council Monday night, and a number of petitions for minor improvements were given attention. All members were present and several citizens occupied the spectators' lobby.

The Columbus avenue and Paint street petitions for improvement by paving, were passed over because the specifications and ordinances had not been prepared. The lighting question also was carried over, and the three proposals will probably be taken up at the special meeting called for Monday evening, June 21.

More time was granted the committee on the street sweeper.

A petition for a sewer on Temple street, from Wilson street to Delaware, a distance of four squares, was presented, and ten citizens agreed to tap the sewer. The Service Committee and engineer were directed to investigate and report in two weeks.

Rose avenue and Pearl street property owners petitioned for an extension of the water main from North to Delaware street. The petition was referred to the service committee.

Main street citizens, Court to Temple, asked council to take steps to keep the street clean. The service committee was instructed to investigate.

An ordinance to prevent the posting of bills, etc., upon telephone, telegraph and electric light poles in the city, was introduced, and a penalty of $10 to $200 provided for violations. Veal said the ordinance was, to the best of his belief, similar to one already in existence.

M. Tracey protested against passing the ordinance, saying that the newspapers would be the ones to benefit by publishing the ordinance at the expense of the city, whereupon President Melvin informed him that the telephone companies and other companies interested had agreed to pay for the legal publication of the ordinance. All voted yet with the exception of M. Tracey. The ordinance was passed.

An ordinance to regulate motor driven vehicles was presented. The ordinance makes it an offense to permit auto or motorcycle exhausts to remain wide open in the principal parts of the city, whether the machine is standing still or moving.

Howell urged an amendment to include the dimming of auto lamps on the main streets, and the ordinance was carried over until the amendment could be prepared.

Auditor McFadden's report for May was read. Mayor Coffey's report, showing $77.89 in fines; $23 in street licenses, and $4.00 in dog licenses collected, was read.

The assessing ordinance for the Washington avenue improvement was read and passed under suspension.

An ordinance determining to proceed with the improvement of Leesburg avenue was read and passed, but some question arising over the width of the street from the old corporation line to the new. The Service Committee was named to look after the matter and confer with the county commissioners.

An ordinance to pay the city's portion of the cost of improving West court street, East street and the Craig-Penn alley, by the issuance of $14,000 in bonds, was passed.

The Commercial Bank was awarded the bonds on Circle avenue and North street improvements, at $142 premium, par and accrued interest. Three other bids were far behind that of the Commercial Bank.

A letter from the State Board of Health, asking for further information concerning the construction of a sewer emptying into Paint creek in opposition to the wishes of the Board, and urging the attention of the Mayor and council to the proposed sanitary sewer system, was read, and after some joking was referred to Mayor Coffey for attention.

A check from Rosser, Harper and Stewart, bidders on the Circle avenue contract and which the bidders for failed, was ordered collected.

The service committee was asked to investigate the request of citizens on Oak street, between Main and Fayette, wherein permission was sought to lay the sidewalk at the curb and narrow the walk two feet. Council adjourned to meet in two weeks.

In Social Circles

The Commencement Dance will be held on the evening of June the seventeenth at the Elks' Hall.

Miss Jean Howat gave a beautiful luncheon, of perfect appointments, Tuesday at one o'clock, for Miss Ivah Haines, whose marriage to Mr. Hays Dill takes place Thursday, June the twenty-fourth.

Pink and white were the prevailing tints in the artistic decorations; the table being laid with twelve covers.

Miss Haines was wearing a gown of canary taffeta, with cream lace bodice and black velvet trimmings, most becoming to her brunette beauty.

Thirty young matrons and girls enjoyed the spontaneous hospitality of Mrs. Martin Hughey, at a delightful Kensington, Tuesday afternoon.

The rooms were redolent with a profusion of old fashioned roses, in graceful arrangement, and a pink and white scheme was prettily carried out in both decorations and the delicious two course collation served.

Assisting in the hospitalities were Mrs. John Noble, Mrs. J. W. Hughey and Mrs. Foster Lane.

WILL ENTER WAR AFTER THE HARVEST

Bucharest, June 8.—Roumania's first step toward entering the great European conflict was taken when the king signed the initial mobilization order, and no doubt remains in the minds of anyone here that the government has definitely decided to join the allies in the war against Germany and Austria.

The mobilization order which has just been signed is only a partial one, as it is understood that unless the unforeseen happens Roumania will not enter the war until after the harvest.

Most of the trained reservists are being sent to their homes and their places will be taken as rapidly as possible by untrained men, who will join the colors for short periods of steady training. In this manner the entire army will be prepared to go to the front when the wheat has been gathered.

Meanwhile troops have been massed along the frontier, and the five army corps which compose the Roumanian army in time of peace have been strengthened to their full complement. All able bodied men between the ages of 19 and 21 are compelled to hold themselves at the disposal of the minister of war in time of peace, and these youths are now being trained in their home districts. When these recruits are ready for service Roumania will be able to place in the field an army of more than 250,000 well trained men.

DEPUTIES SENTENCED TO STATE PRISON

New York, June 8.—The nine deputies who were convicted a week ago of having been involved among those who in January last fired into a group of strikers in Roosevelt, N. J., were sentenced by Justice Bergen at New Brunswick to not less than two years nor more than ten years in state prison. They were charged with murder and convicted of manslaughter.

Her Long Kept Secret

She Told It Frankly and Was Glad That She Did.

By BYRON H. KELLEY.

Virginia sat down before the glass and took stock of herself in minute and critical fashion. When a woman has reached her twenty-eighth year she is either at her worst or her best, and Virginia was at her best. Her glass told her that and the faces of her friends of her own age who had faded about her until she was left like the one perfect flower in a cluster, conspicuous by her brightness.

Her little sister had just announced that Mr. Bridges had driven up in front of the house and was waiting to take her driving.

But Virginia sat still. She had just been making a resolution never to go driving with him again, and here he was. She clinched her hands tight.

"Just this once!" she pleaded to her conscience. Her eyes met the longing ones in the glass. "Just this once, and I'll tell him. I will be honest. His heart shan't break even if mine does."

She turned to her sister.

"Dorothy, dear, tell Mr. Bridges I'll be right down," she said gently. Then she rose and put on her hat.

It did seem so good to be sitting beside him again—if only it were not for that miserable thing which she had promised herself she would make known to him before the drive was ended. She looked at his face. It was such a strong, good face. Oh, it would be bitterly hard to tell him!

He seemed to have something on his mind too, he was so grave and silent, and whenever he looked at her it was with quiet penetration.

Virginia leaned back against the thick cushion, trying to steady herself. She did not notice that Plume had stopped trotting and was walking slowly, but when a hand fell over hers she started and looked into the eyes of the man whose face had come suddenly near to hers.

"Virginia! Dear little girl!" She knew what must come after those words, but she could not speak.

"Virginia"—his eyes held hers—"I love you!" Then he smiled his swift, gentle smile, as if her silence had reassured him.

That smile seemed to break the spell. Virginia remembered that she drew her hand from his and began to say something wildly, what she did not know until his changed, white face stopped her.

"Virginia, what are you saying? Promised—you? I will not believe it." His stern voice braced her.

"Oh, but you must—you must!" she said.

"I will not believe it. I will not believe that you do not care for me—that you have led me on just for pastime. It isn't true, is it, dear?" His voice had softened again. He put his arm about her and drew her against him until her cheek touched his.

"Tell me all about it," he urged. "I must know it all. There is some mistake somewhere. I am sure. Tell me, Virginia."

He released her gently and waited. Virginia gathered herself together desperately.

"I'll tell you everything, Arthur," she said. "I promised myself that I would before this drive was ended. I should have told you before only I could not somehow. I shall begin at the beginning and tell it all, and then you may think what you please of me.

"It happened ten years ago, when I was about eighteen and Andrew two years older. We had known each other always. He lived in that little gray house next to ours until his father got into some financial difficulty and lost what property he had. Mr. Hall never could get along somehow. I always liked Andrew better than any other boy; he was so good hearted and gentle. One night when we were walking home from church he asked me to marry him." Virginia hurried a little. "It was June, and there was beautiful moonlight. I had never dreamed of marrying him or anybody then, but he looked so handsome and he seemed so much in earnest that I promised before I thought. Then I was frightened, because I knew my people would never consent to it. My mother always said she was afraid Andrew would be just like his father and never amount to anything. So we decided to keep our engagement a secret.

"Just after that Mr. Hall was taken with a great desire to go west. He knew he could do something out there. I think he had an idea that gold nuggets could be picked up like acorns. Anyway he was perfectly crazy to go, and he went and took Andrew with him. We wrote back and forth pretty steadily for awhile. Andrew didn't like the west very well, and his father was disappointed, but they would have to stay there until they had earned money enough to get back home with. Well, I don't know—I was in school, and there were so many things to take my time that I guess I grew careless about writing, and Andrew seemed to grow just as careless himself. Besides, he and his father were constantly on the move. I think they must have traveled the west over pretty thoroughly. The last time I heard from Andrew was three years ago. He said he was still trying to get rich and talked of going to the Klondike. I answered the letter, but perhaps he never got it.

"You are the first person I ever told this to," she said, looking earnestly at Arthur.

"I see," he said quietly. He thought he could understand what manner of man it was that would keep a girl to a foolish promise in this way for eleven years.

"You really think, Virginia, that Andrew will come back?" he asked.

"Yes, I really think so."

"And you will marry him if he does?" Virginia turned very pale.

"You see, Virginia," Bridges went on gently, "I have some old fashioned notions about these things. Unless you love him you have no business to marry him were you twenty times promised to him. It would not be fair to him, and it would be most unjust to yourself."

Virginia never had thought of that.

"Now, I'll tell you what I shall do, for I think I have something to say in this matter. I will wait just one more year for Andrew to put in his appearance—just one year, not a day more or less—and if he doesn't come then I shall take you for myself. Do you understand me, Virginia?"

She looked at him with a brightening face. But the brightness quickly faded like the light from a sunset cloud.

"And if he does come?" she gasped.

"Why, then, that's a matter for your own deciding. If you love him enough to marry him, marry him. But if you don't," he smiled, "you'd better marry some one you do."

During the rest of the drive Virginia sat trying to realize things. She could not be thankful enough that she had told him and he did not despise her.

It was 6 by the clock when Plume trotted down the long street and left Virginia at her own door. She ran into the house, unpinning her hat as she ran. Her mother came in from the dining room with a dish in her hand.

"Virginia, guess who has come while you've been gone," she said.

"I don't know," she faltered.

"Andrew Hall! Would you believe it? I thought I knew him when I saw him go by in the bus. Afterward Mrs. Ward came in and told me. He wasn't dressed any better than he was when he went away. I guess he hasn't brought much back with him except his wife. He's married!"

"Married!"

Virginia sank trembling into a chair. "So Mrs. Ward says. She's been over to the hotel to see them." Dorothy danced in from the kitchen. "Mamma," she called, "the tea is boiling over!"

Mrs. Swift hurried out, and Virginia, her hands pressed to her throbbing heart, understood the situation.

A few minutes later Arthur Bridges drove up to the house. He entered the library, where Virginia sat weeping softly from joy.

"My own sweetheart!" he exclaimed as he took her in his arms. "There is no one between us now. Andrew Hall has just come back with his wife."

"I know. Mamma just told me, and—and I am so glad, Arthur!"

CLEAN UP OF ALLEGED THIEVING CASES MADE IN MAYOR'S COURT

Riley Justis Fined $200 and Sentenced to 30 Days in Workhouse—Oren Benjamin Added to List of Accused—Two Released and Three Bound Over. One Remains in Jail.

A general clean-up occurred in the Mayor's Court Monday evening, when the cases of the several men implicated in a confession by Riley Justis last week were variously disposed of. Each of the men had been named by Justis as members of a gang of chicken, corn and hog thieves, to which Justis belonged.

Another has been added to the list of implicated. Orrin Benjamin appeared before the court Monday evening. Benjamin was said to have purchased corn and hay stolen by the gang.

Riley Justis, who was the first arrested and whose statement led to the detention of the others, was fined $200 and sentenced to 30 days in the workhouse by the mayor. He was taken to the Xenia workhouse Tuesday to begin service.

Orrin Benjamin, Elmer Cox and Allen Justis were arraigned and waived examination. They were bound over to the grand jury. The bond of Benjamin was placed at $200 and of the others $100 each. All were allowed to go free on furnishing bond.

Foster Pearson and Cliff McCoy were released after thorough examination.

Bert McCoy remains in jail. No action in his case has been taken.

The declaration of Riley Justis, indicating the existence of a systematic thieving organization, has aroused great interest in the county. It is thought probable that other arrests will be made.

Attorney Lee Rankin, representing the Anti-Horse Thief Association, is handling the prosecution of the cases. The three defendants bound over to the grand jury, Benjamin, Cox and Allen Justis, have retained Attorney Charles A. Reid to defend them.

INCREASE OF TWO MILLS FOR RURAL ROADS ASKED

County Commissioners Pass Resolution Declaring Amount of Taxes Insufficient for Fayette Road Improvement and Ask for Submission to Voters of Two Mill Levy for Five Years.

Believing that the taxes for road building purposes are insufficient to properly repair and improve the roads of the county, the County Commissioners, by unanimous vote, Tuesday morning adopted a resolution asking for a special two mills levy in addition to the regular levy, and asking the Deputy State Supervisors of Elections call an election for submitting the proposal to the people. The resolution is almost identical to that of last year.

The resolution reads:

"Be it resolved by the county commissioners of Fayette county, Ohio, that the amount of taxes that may be raised for the improvement of public roads and highways within said county by the levy of taxes at the maximum rate authorized by sections 5649-2 and 5649-3 of the General Code within its taxing district, will be insufficient and that it is expected to levy taxes for the said purpose at a rate in excess of such rate and that it will require an increase of rate of two mills above the maximum rate of taxes for the period of five years for said purposes; and be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be certified to the Deputy State Supervisors of Elections of Fayette county, Ohio, for further proceedings according to law."

The Deputy State Supervisors of Elections will call an election on the proposal, and it is more than probable that the primary election date will also be the date of the vote on the proposal above mentioned.

Misses Lena Miller, of Hillsboro, and Dinta Mason, of Lynchburg, returned home Monday, after a week's visit with Miss Pauline Jacobs at Parrots.

BOOSTERS WILL VISIT NEIGHBORS IN AUTOMOBILES

With the purpose of informing everyone within a wide radius of what is in store for them during the Y. M. C. A. matinee races, June 17, a party of Y. M. C. A. boosters will begin this evening a series of trips which will include neighboring towns in and out of the county.

With ten automobile loads of prominent citizens and a band, the boosters will leave the Y. M. C. A. at 6:30 this evening for Leesburg, Greenfield and Good Hope. Arriving at each of these places the band will give a concert and speakers of the party will contribute soap box speeches with reference to the forthcoming event.

It is planned that such trips be taken nightly, or as convenient, until all places of the itinerary are visited.

The arrangements for the big matinee races are going rapidly and successfully forward, it is announced. The advertising committee has been busy during the week past with its cards and banners and advertisements and has well "covered" the county.

It is announced that Frank Woodland, of this city, secretary of the Ohio Racing Circuit, has been engaged to start the races. Mr. Charles Mark, of the program committee, stated Tuesday that the slow classes are filling up rapidly and he expects a tip top card.

SIX VENIREMEN ARE DRAWN TODAY

Because Wm. J. Wilson, Harry Hettinger and Chas. Lowe, could not be found in Fayette county, the jury commission drew six additional veniremen to add to the special venire drawn in the John Denner murder case.

The cost of drawing the six veniremen was $10, and the new members of the venire are: Frank D. Hays, 1st ward; A. P. Kilgore, 2nd ward; Talmadge Wilson, Concord; A. L. Moore, Union; Grant Stoughton, Paint; Albert Armstrong, Jefferson.

Where a venireman cannot be found, two additional veniremen are drawn to fill the place.

ADDITIONAL PERSONALS.

Hon. C. A. Reid was called to Xenia on professional business today.

Mrs. John Malster and daughter Miss Lucy Malster, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Baldwin left Tuesday for a visit in Atlanta before returning to their home in Washington county.

Miss Ethel Arnold, of Cleveland, and Mr. M. L. Mace, of Norfolk, are the guests of Mr. J. D. Mace and family, east of town, for several days.

Miss Lissa Stewart has as her guest, Mrs. Alice Southard Dillon of Adelphi.

CITY COUNCIL PASSES MORE IMPROVEMENT LEGISLATION

Ordinance Introduced Also includes One Prohibiting Placing of Posters on Phone Poles, and One to Eliminate Noise of Motor Driven Vehicles and to Dim Lights on Same--State Health Board Sends Letter.

More street legislation was enacted by the city council Monday night, and a number of petitions for minor improvements were given attention. All members were present and several citizens occupied the spectators' lobby.

The Columbus avenue and Paint street petitions for improvement by paving, were passed over because the specifications and ordinances had not been prepared. The lighting question also was carried over, and the three proposals will probably be taken up at the special meeting called for Monday evening, June 21.

More time was granted the committee on the street sweeper.

A petition for a sewer on Temple street, from Wilson street to Delaware, a distance of four squares, was presented, and ten citizens agreed to tap the sewer. The Service Committee and engineer were directed to investigate and report in two weeks.

Rose avenue and Pearl street property owners petitioned for an extension of the water main from North to Delaware street. The petition was referred to the service committee.

Main street citizens, Court to Temple, asked council to take steps to keep the street clean. The service committee was instructed to investigate.

An ordinance to prevent the posting of bills, etc., upon telephone, telegraph and electric light poles in the city, was introduced, and a penalty of $10 to $200 provided for violations. Veal said the ordinance was, to the best of his belief, similar to one already in existence. M. Stewart protested against passing the ordinance, saying that the newspapers would be the ones to benefit by publishing the ordinance at the expense of the city, whereupon President Melvin informed him that the telephone companies and other companies interested had agreed to pay for the legal publication of the ordinance. All voted yet with the exception of M. Tracey. The ordinance was passed.

reception of M. Tracey. The ordinance was passed.

An ordinance to regulate motor driven vehicles was presented. The ordinance makes it an offense to permit auto or motorcycle exhausts to remain wide open in the principal parts of the city, whether the machine is standing still or moving. Howell urged an amendment to include the dimming of auto lamps on the main streets, and the ordinance was carried over until the amendment could be prepared.

Auditor McFadden's report for May was read. Mayor Coffey's report, showing $77.80 in fines; $23 in street licenses, and $4.00 in dog licenses collected, was read.

The assessing ordinance for the Washington avenue improvement was read and passed under suspension.

An ordinance determining to proceed with the improvement of Leesburg avenue was read and passed, but some question arising over the width of the street from the old corporation line to the new. The Service Committee was named to look after the matter and confer with the county commissioners.

An ordinance to pay the city's portion of the cost of improving West court street, East street and the Craig-Penn alley, by the issuance of $14,000 in bonds, was passed.

The Commercial Bank was awarded the bonds on Circle avenue and North street improvements, at $142 premium, par and accrued interest. Three other bids were far behind that of the Commercial Bank.

A letter from the State Board of Health, asking for further information concerning the construction of a sewer emptying into Paint creek in opposition to the wishes of the Board, and urging the attention of the Mayor and council to the proposed sanitary sewer system, was read, and after some joking was referred to Mayor Coffey for attention.

A check from Rosser, Harper and Stewart, bidders on the Circle avenue contract and which the bidders for felted, was ordered collected.

The service committee was asked to investigate the request of citizens on Oak street, between Main and Fayette, wherein permission was sought to lay the sidewalk at the curb and narrow the walk two feet. Council adjourned to meet in two weeks.

In Social Circles

The Commencement Dance will be held on the evening of June the seventeenth at the Elks' Hall.

Miss Jean Howat gave a beautiful luncheon, of perfect appointments, Tuesday at one o'clock, for Miss Ivah Haines, whose marriage to Mr. Hays Dill takes place Thursday, June the twenty-fourth.

Pink and white were the prevailing tints in the artistic decorations; the table being laid with twelve covers.

Miss Haines was wearing a gown of canary taffeta, with cream lace bodice and black velvet trimmings, most becoming to her brunette beauty.

Thirty young matrons and girls enjoyed the spontaneous hospitality of Mrs. Martin Hughey, at a delightful Kensington, Tuesday afternoon.

The rooms were redolent with a profusion of old fashioned roses, in graceful arrangement, and a pink and white scheme was prettily carried out in both decorations and the delicious two course collation served.

Assisting in the hospitalities were Mrs. John Noble, Mrs. J. W. Hughey and Mrs. Foster Lane.

REPLY TO BERLIN IS HELD BACK

Washington, June 8.—The note which the United States is to send to Germany with respect to submarine warfare was prepared with the utmost expedition and has not been subjected to an hour's unnecessary delay since it was first drafted. The president's desire to have the document state explicitly the position of the United States government so that it can not possibly be misunderstood abroad or invite protracted discussion on the fundamental issues involved, is chiefly responsible for the fact that the note has not yet gone.

Legal officers of the government examined the note with minute care and sent it back to the president with some changes. It will require further consideration by the president and his cabinet. On the highest authority, it was stated that as soon as the president regarded the communication as satisfactory in phraseology it would be transmitted to Ambassador Gerard.

While the president has been at work on the document, special agents of the United States government have by their investigation corroborated in every detail the statement made in the first American note—that the Lusitania was unarmed.

At the same time Myer Gebhard, personal envoy of Count Von Bernstorff, has been voyaging nearer to Germany, carrying an important message from the German embassy concerning the American point of view on submarine warfare. The latter circumstance, however, was declared in high official quarters to have been merely a coincidence and in no way to have influenced the progress of the note.

Officials familiar with the situation dissipated the notion that any influences had arisen to delay the sending of the communication. One of the president's closest advisers declared that there had been no intentional delay, but that the note had required much scrutiny and careful consideration.

In diplomatic quarters the dispatch of the note is awaited with intense interest. Dr. Constantin Dumba, the Austrian minister, left today for Lenox, Mass., for the summer. Count Von Bernstorff will wait for the sending of the note before going to summer quarters of the embassy at Cedarhurst, L. I.

SURGERY IS RECOMMENDED

Albany, N. Y., June 8.—Cancer is claiming 4,000 victims annually in New York city alone, according to statistics compiled by the state health department. The total in the whole state is 8,000 annually. To check the spread of the disease, which has continued to increase without interruption for the past fifteen years, Dr. Herman M. Biggs, state commissioner of health, has instituted a statewide campaign against the malady. He intends to carry on a fight through the physicians, the schools and other institutional mediums. One of the points being driven home by the health department authorities is that cancer in its early stages yields to surgery. Hundreds of cases to prove this assertion are on record in the health department.

THE FALL OF LEMBERG IS IMMINENT

London, June 8.—The Austro-German forces which captured Przemyśl are battering their way eastward and, according to both the German and Austrian official communications, are at one point in the southeast hardly more than sixty miles from the Russian frontier. The troops which swept through Stryj have continued farther east until they are thirty miles beyond that town and equally beyond Lemberg, the position of which appears perilous. Farther north they are eighteen miles to the east of Przemyśl. So that, roughly speaking, the encircling movement on Lemberg is duplicating that at Przemyśl.

Telegrams from Vienna say that Lemberg, the capital of the Austrian crown land of Galicia, may be taken at any moment by the Austro-German forces. One message from the Austrian capital says that the Austrians are twenty-five miles from the town and other advices estimate the distance at only ten miles.

The Germans are also on the offensive in the Baltic provinces. Their official statement records the crossing of the river Windau, to the southeast of Libau. A Petrograd dispatch received in London says: "Telegrams from Riga report the Germans active to the north, northeast and east of Libau. The military authorities expect heavy fighting at Mostizsk, where the Russians will make a determined stand."

Although the battle squadrons of the German and Russian fleets have not yet been engaged, there have been clashes between submarines and destroyers, torpedo boats and air craft, in which it is reported that three German transports and the Russian transport Yensel have been sunk. How many lives were lost aboard the Germans is not yet known, and Petrograd announces that thirty-two of her lost ship were saved. It is apparent that a large German squadron which has been held at Kiel has stepped out and is conveying a number of transports through the Baltic.

A general Italian advance is taking place across the Isonzo river from Caporetto to the sea, a distance of about forty miles. The movement is one of importance and hard fighting is taking place at Gradisca and in the vicinity of this town. The resistance of the Austrians is daily becoming stronger.

It was announced at the admiralty that a Zeppelin visited the east coast of England, dropping incendiary and explosive bombs. Five persons were killed and forty were injured. Two fires were caused by the incendiary bombs.

TEUTONS STILL PUSH FORWARD

Amsterdam, June 8.—The Austrian war office issued the following statement at Vienna: "Considerable progress north of Moscora, in Galicia, has been made by the attacks of the central Austro-German forces, which have advanced to a point twenty-five miles from Lemberg. General Linsingen's army has gained a firm footing on the northern bank of the Denister after successfully storming a bridge at Zurawana. More than 30,000 prisoners have been captured since June 1 in the battle around Przemyśl."

OHIO BRIEFS

Governor Defends Vetoes.

Columbus, June 8.—Governor Willis, in discussing his vetoes of items in the budget, said: "No legislature made as careful provision for betterments in housing conditions of the state institutions which care for the wards of the state as has the present legislature, and after a vigorous exercise of the veto this still is so." He pointed out that for betterments at the state institutions the last Democratic legislature appropriated only $322,000, while the present legislature appropriated $1,526,000, from which the governor cut $485,000, leaving a sum of $1,040,000.

Shots Exchanged With Suspects.

Jackson, O., June 8.—Alonzo Radcliffe and William Jones were arrested on a charge of horse stealing after an exciting chase, during which many shots were exchanged. The sheriff and his party tracked the men for several miles and came upon them near the Gallia county line.

McDermott Law Attacked.

Cincinnati, June 8.—An attack on the McDermott liquor license decentralizer, defense of home rule and plans for a liquor interest organization in each county of the state were included in the address by Maurice J. Freiberg, president of the Ohio Wine and Spirit association, at the opening session of its convention here.

Hit by Automobile.

Massillon, O., June 8.—Frank Miller, a farmer of Navarre, died at the city hospital from a fractured skull, received when he was struck by an automobile. He did not regain consciousness.

Rev. George Smead Dead.

Toledo, June 8.—Rev. George L. Smead, eighty, for twenty-five years superintendent of the state school for the blind, is dead. He is survived by his widow and two sons.

Cincinnati Fire.

Cincinnati, June 8.—Fire here partially destroyed the five-story brick building occupied by the Cincinnati Grain company, causing a loss estimated at $100,000.

MIDDIES SAID TO CHEAT IN THEIR EXAMS

Annapolis, Md., June 8.—That efforts of the midshipmen to obtain advance information as to the questions to be asked on their examinations were systematic and continuous, that a large proportion of the midshipmen benefited by them at the late annual examination and that theft was resorted to for the purpose of securing the questions, were some of the startling productions at the first session of the court of inquiry appointed by Secretary Daniels to investigate the whole matter of the use of unfair means in recitations and examinations at the naval academy.

The matter was brought to the attention of the department by ten recent cases where midshipmen have been recommended for dismissal. Three of these midshipmen have been dismissed and have left the institution, and the recommendation of the superintendent in the cases of seven more are in the hands of the secretary of the navy. Action is not likely to be taken by him, however, until the present court completes its work. It appeared from the testimony given before the board of investigation that members of all classes of midshipmen admitted that the majority of them had access before the examination to the questions which were actually asked.

CARRANZA IS SEEKING RECOGNITION

Washington, June 8.—A reply from Carranza to President Wilson's note of warning to the Mexican leaders is expected hourly at the Carranza agency in this city.

The expectation here is that Carranza in his reply will attempt to pave the way for a formal application for recognition by the Washington government. It is understood to be the purpose of Carranza to move forward as rapidly as possible in the next few weeks, reoccupy Mexico City and in other ways give evidence that he has attained control that entitles him to recognition. Officials of the Carranza agency say that upon the occupation of Mexico City by Carranza forces, the populace will be fed and relief extended to noncombatants in other sections of the republic.

The administration has not yet come to any conclusion that forecloses the possibility of recognizing Carranza. The president has, in fact, selected no one for recognition, and it will be up to Carranza in any event to show his control is as widespread as has been represented.

Official advices received here tend to support the claims of the Carranzistas that Villa's star is waning and that he can no longer maintain himself as a factor in the situation. Carranza officials in Washington insist that Villa is short of funds and ammunition, and that his recent attempt to open communications with Carranza to talk about peace is an acknowledgment of defeat.

The exodus of Americans and other foreigners from Mexico City has begun, according to advices received at the state department from the Brazilian minister at the Mexican capital. A special train bound for Vera Cruz, carrying 300 men, women and children, left Mexico City.

Duval West, who made an investigation of conditions in Mexico in behalf of the administration and who will act as the adviser of the president and the secretary of state on the Mexican question, will return to Washington on June 15 to take up his duties.

It is reported from El Paso that General Villa has decided to ask General Carranza to agree to a neutral territory for a conference to consider the suggestions contained in President Wilson's note.

EXECUTED HAD GOLD FOR DIAZ

Brownsville, Tex., June 8.—Advices telling of the execution of thirteen Mexicans, three of them generals, by the forces of General Nafarrate, in Tamaulapas, Nuevo Leon, have been received here. The executions are said to have occurred after the capture of the party, following a short fight with a detachment of forty Nafarrate's Indians. The men were en route to the United States and had with them Mexican gold and other money valued at $1,500,000 Mexican gold, with which they proposed to aid Felix Diaz in forming another revolution. These facts, it is claimed, were revealed by papers found on the men. The money was sent to Monterey.

The party included General Eugenio Aguirre Benavide, who has been active in many campaigns in the late Mexican wars, and General Julian Delgado. The victims had been serving with General Eulalio Gutierrez, who recently issued a proclamation that he recognized his error in quitting Carranza's banner.

TOO MANY DOCTORS IN STATE OF OHIO

Cleveland, June 8.—According to Dr. Henry P. Pritchett of the Carnegie foundation for the advancement of teaching there are too many physicians in Ohio. Dr. Pritchett says that 5,568 of the 7,912 physicians in the state were trained in Ohio medical schools. "In Ohio there is a physician for every 630 of population—three times the number found in a thickly settled country like Germany," says Dr. Pritchett. He states that Columbus is the state's most bed-crooked city, where there is one for every 520 inhabitants. Cincinnati has one for every 560. Cleveland has one for every 800 and Toledo one for each 1,000.

TREATY EXISTS BETWEEN ROUMANIA AND GERMANY

London, June 8.—The following dispatch from Berlin was received here: "Political discussions in Bucharest, Roumania, brought to light the fact that there exists a formal treaty between Austria, Germany and Roumania. The treaty, which continues until 1920, regulates the relations among these countries and binds Roumania, in case of war, not to attack her allies."

MISSION OF HOLLANDER

Washington, June 8.—Hope of giving impetus to a movement to bring about mediation of the European war through a combination of neutral nations has brought Van Ghell Geldemeister of Holland to this country. His visit to the United States follows visits to Germany and England, in both of which countries he is said to have satisfied himself that there was some hope that mediation would be accepted if offered to the leading belligerents in a proper manner. President Wilson and his advisers do not believe that the time is yet ripe for any peace move. The president at the beginning of the war offered his services to the warring nations as a mediator and that offer is still standing.

TWO ALLEGED WIRE TAPPERS ARE HELD

New York, June 8.—Fred Gondori and Edward Fitzgerald, held in $25,000 bail each on charges of grand larceny in swindling William O'Reilly of Toronto out of $17,400 by a wire tapping game, were turned over to Detective Daly. He presented bench warrants for their arrests following two indictments against each man, handed down by the grand jury.

ASSISTANT TREASURER NAMED BY PRESIDENT

Washington, June 8.—President Wilson selected Arthur Espy for assistant treasurer of the United States at Cincinnati.

FRENCH ARE VICTORIOUS

Paris, June 8.—The following official communique was issued by the war office:

"In the sector north of Arras the fighting continues to be of an extremely violent character and we are still making progress. Artillery combats have continued without interruption at Lefond Buval, at Ablaine, at Souchez, at Neuville and at Ecurie.

"The attack which we delivered to the southeast of Hebuterne proved a complete success. We captured in one charge both of the enemy's lines, together with the Tontvent farm, and took 400 non-wounded prisoners, including seven officers. The enemy left several hundreds of dead on the field.

"North of the Aisne the enemy has made renewed and desperate attempts to recapture the two lines of trenches which we took from him Sunday. After having brought up reinforcements in automobiles from a point eighty kilometers away, he delivered a furious assault, which was completely repulsed. The Germans left 2,000 dead on the field at this point. We captured 250 prisoners."

Every American who likes civilized progress will be pleased at the new commercial move of Iceland establishing a trade line with our ports. There is a romantic sentiment for the hardy Norseman who fights for a living against ice and snow, as our pioneers battled against savages and beasts. Needless to say, the Icelanders can use about everything we can offer, and we can use their fish, mutton and wool. "Skool to the northland! Skool!"

"Too proud to fight" really means too proud to be forced into war, as the big European nations claim to have been against their will. If the United States holds out it will be the biggest peace proposition in the world.

WILL ENTER WAR AFTER THE HARVEST

Bucharest, June 8.—Roumania's first step toward entering the great European conflict was taken when the king signed the initial mobilization order, and no doubt remains in the minds of anyone here that the government has definitely decided to join the allies in the war against Germany and Austria. The mobilization order which has just been signed is only a partial one, as it is understood that unless the unforeseen happens Roumania will not enter the war until after the harvest. Most of the trained reservists are being sent to their homes and their places will be taken as rapidly as possible by untrained men, who will join the colors for short periods of steady training. In this manner the entire army will be prepared to go to the front when the wheat has been gathered.

Meanwhile troops have been massed along the frontier, and the five army corps which compose the Roumanian army in time of peace have been strengthened to their full complement. All able bodied men between the ages of 19 and 21 are compelled to hold themselves at the disposal of the minister of war in time of peace, and these youths are now being trained in their home districts. When these recruits are ready for service Roumania will be able to place in the field an army of more than 250,000 well trained men.

Her Long Kept Secret

She Told It Frankly and Was Glad That She Did.

By BYRON H. KELLEY.

Virginia sat down before the glass and took stock of herself in minute and critical fashion. When a woman has reached her twenty-eighth year she is either at her worst or her best, and Virginia was at her best. Her glass told her that and the faces of her friends of her own age who had faded after her until she was left like the one perfect flower in a cluster, conspicuous by her brightness.

Her little sister had just announced that Mr. Bridges had driven up in front of the house and was waiting to take her driving.

But Virginia sat still. She had just been making a resolution never to go driving with him again, and here he was. She clinched her hands tight.

"Just this once!" she pleaded to her conscience. Her eyes met the longing ones in the glass. "Just this once, and I'll tell him. I will be honest. His heart shan't break even if mine does."

She turned to her sister.

"Dorothy, dear, tell Mr. Bridges I'll be right down," she said gently. Then she rose and put on her hat.

It did seem so good to be sitting beside him again—if only it were not for that miserable thing which she had promised herself she would make known to him before the drive was ended. She looked at his face. It was such a strong, good face. Oh, it would be bitterly hard to tell him!

He seemed to have something on his mind too, he was so grave and silent, and whenever he looked at her it was with quiet penetration.

Virginia leaned back against the thick cushion, trying to steady herself. She did not notice that Plume had stopped trotting and was walking slowly, but when a hand fell over hers she started and looked into the eyes of the man whose face had come suddenly near to hers.

"Virginia! Dear little girl!" She knew what must come after those words, but she could not speak.

"Virginia"—his eyes held hers—"I love you!" Then he smiled his swift, gentle smile, as if her silence had reassured him.

That smile seemed to break the spell. Virginia remembered that she drew her hand from his and began to say something wildly, what she did not know until his changed, white face stopped her.

"Virginia, what are you saying? Promised—you? I will not believe it." His stern voice braced her.

"Oh, but you must—you must!" she said.

"I will not believe it. I will not believe that you do not care for me—that you have led me on just for pastime. It isn't true, is it, dear?" His voice had softened again. He put his arm about her and drew her against him until her cheek touched his.

"It happened ten years ago, when I was about eighteen and Andrew two years older. We had known each other always. He lived in that little gray house next to ours until his father got into some financial difficulty and lost what property he had. Mr. Hall never could get along somehow. I always liked Andrew better than any other boy; he was so good hearted and gentle. One night when we were walking home from church he asked me to marry him." Virginia hurried a little. "It was June, and there was beautiful moonlight. I had never dreamed of marrying him or anybody then, but he looked so handsome and he seemed so much in earnest that I promised before I thought. Then I was frightened, because I knew my people would never consent to it. My mother always said she was afraid Andrew would be just like his father and never amount to anything. So we decided to keep our engagement a secret."

"Just after that Mr. Hall was taken with a great desire to go west. He knew he could do something out there. I think he had an idea that gold nuggets could be picked up like acorns. Anyway he was perfectly crazy to go, and he went and took Andrew with him. We wrote back and forth pretty steadily for awhile. Andrew didn't like the west very well, and his father was disappointed, but they would have to stay there until they had earned money enough to get back home with. Well, I don't know—I was in school, and there were so many things to take my time that I guess I grew careless about writing, and Andrew seemed to grow just as careless himself. Besides, he and his father were constantly on the move. I think they must have traveled the west over pretty thoroughly. The last time I heard from Andrew was three years ago. He said he was still trying to get rich and talked of going to the Klondike. I answered the letter, but perhaps he never got it."

"You are the first person I ever told this to," she said, looking earnestly at Arthur.

"I see," he said quietly. He thought he could understand what manner of man it was that would keep a girl to a foolish promise in this way for eleven years.

"You really think, Virginia, that Andrew will come back?" he asked.

"Yes, I really think so."

"And you will marry him if he does?" Virginia turned very pale.

"You see, Virginia," Bridges went on gently, "I have some old fashioned notions about these things. Unless you love him you have no business to marry him. You were twenty times promised to him. It would not be fair to him, and it would be most unjust to yourself."

Virginia never had thought of that. "Now, I'll tell you what I shall do, for I think I have something to say in this matter. I will wait just one more year for Andrew to put in his appearance—just one year, not a day more or less—and if he doesn't come then I shall take you for myself. Do you understand me, Virginia?"

She looked at him with a brightening face. But the brightness quickly faded like the light from a sunset cloud.

"And if he does come?" she gasped.

"Why, then, that's a matter for your own deciding. If you love him enough to marry him, marry him. But if you don't," he smiled, "you'd better marry some one you do."

During the rest of the drive Virginia sat trying to realize things. She could not be thankful enough that she had told him and he did not despise her.

It was 6 by the clock when Plume trotted down the long street and left Virginia at her own door. She ran into the house, unpinning her hat as she ran. Her mother came in from the dining room with a dish in her hand.

Two Little Stories Brief in Speech and Light in Plot.

We present today, says the Detroit Free Press, the following "shortest stories" alleged to be by the author of "Every Horse Has His Neigh," "Cross-eyed Christopher," "The Tragedy of a Sausage, or Whose Dog Was He?" "Always Room at the Top, or Bald at Thirty," "Peeping Thomases, or The Dreadful Rubber Band," "Lost In the Dye Works," etc., of which nobody has ever heard.

No Idle Tears.

"Tears, idle tears," a poet says, "I know not what they mean." The man who wrote the line we quote was surely far from keen.

For when a man like you or me sees wife begin to cry,
He knows it means some fifty beans for something she must buy.

WASHINGTON IS INTERESTED, TOO

The C. H. & D. Railway System in March failed to earn enough to pay its taxes. The talk about re-organizing it is all to the effect that such branches as the one which runs through Chillicothe must be lopped off the main stem. The B. & O. might be able to use this division to advantage, partly as double track and partly as affording an entrance into Dayton. Its fate is of vital interest to Chillicothe. — Chillicothe Gazette.
